SUGAR RAY LEONARD, when in Las Vegas a couple months ago, was stalked by Las Vegas Bruce Finch (immediate rear), North American Boxing Federation welterweight champ, for an autograph. 'Now it is reported that a possible boxing match between the two may develop in January.

BOXING SHOWCASE

Former world cruiser-weight champion Marvin Camel snapped Bash Ali's 10-fight winning streak Friday night on a 12-round unanimous decision at San Francisco's Cow Palace. Camel took Ali's United States Boxing Association title and won a shot at current world titleholder Carlos DeLeon.

possibilities for next year.

Mike "Hercules" Weaver chased James "Quick" Tillis for most of 15 rounds but caught him often, especially with body punches, to win a unanimous 15-round decision and retain the World Boxing Association heavyweight championship Saturday in Rosemont, Ill. on the same card with Marvin Hagler.

Alexis Arguello, using the skills honed by dozens of rounds with world class opponents, retained his World Boxing Council light-weight championship Saturday with a 14th-round TKO over a game but inexperienced Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini.

Marvin Hagler successfully defended his world middleweight title Saturday with an 11th-round technical knockout of top-ranked Mustafa Hamsho before about 8,000 people at the 19,000-seat Horizon Arena in Rosemont, Ill. The victory opens the way for Hagler to join the millionaires of boxing, with possible fights against Sugar Ray Leonard, Thomas Hearns and Roberto Duran

Las Vegas Bruce Finch is anxiously awaiting official word from the Sugar Ray Leonard camp about a possible bout in January. Finch's manager, Keith Galliher, was contacted earlier last week by Leonard's attorney, Mike Trainer, about the possibility.

Prost and Jones entered the Canadian Grand Prix with 37 points each and were looking to stay in the title chase.

Prost was running a solid race, having lead until lap 12, when Laffite charged ahead and exchanged second.

Taking second place honors was England's John Watson for the McLaren team. Native Canadian Villeneuve was third with Alfa Romeo's Bruno Giacomelli of Italy finishing in the points for the first time this year in fourth.

Now, with Reutemann, Piquet and Laffite in the championship spotlight, the exciting Formula One road show comes to Las Vegas and the Caesars Palace Grand Prix. Construction is completed on the 45,000 seat stadium-like course. Tickets may be obtained by calling the Caesars Palace Grand Prix ticket office (702) 731-7762.
