

Girl Scouts Make Trek

Eight Black junior and senior high school girls and their two adult leaders recently completed the first Wyoming Trek camping trip sponsored by Frontier Girl Scout Council under a Reader's Digest grant. The 13 day trip across parts of Nevada, Utah and Wyoming culminated in a week-long campout at National Center West, a Girl Scout wilderness camp near Ten Sleep, Wyoming.

The girls, ages 12 through 16 who participated in the event, were Sharon Beatty, Tanya Bowser, Justina Boyd, Shirnice Dorman, Denise Jackson, Queenie Johnson and Charisse and Tania Neal, Ina Dorman and Alice Smith served as leaders for the group.

Almost all of these girls were new to Girl Scouting and inexperienced in camping at the beginning of the project.

EOB 'Handyman' Project Set

The Economic Opportunity Board of Clark County announces the inception of a new program, the "Handyman" Services for Seniors and Handicapped.

"Handyman" is a self-supporting program which came about in response to constant requests from seniors and handicapped who have had difficulty in finding affordable repair services for their homes or mobile homes", explained J. David Hoggard, Executive Director for the Agency.

Two well equipped vans will be available for daily operation. Hours will be 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

To request service or for more information, call the EOB "Handyman" Services Offices at 642-1487.

National Activities Week Sponsored

National High School Activities Week, being held October 19-25, is sponsored by the National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association (NIAAA.)

The NIAAA membership, sensitive to the fact that as demands for the educational dollar become greater, activity program funding decreases, became alarmed at the number of reduced or eliminated programs across the country. On July 7, 1979, by unanimous vote, the National Federation membership established the "National High School Activities Week," to reach the American public with the facts relating to educational values of activities programs for America's youth, and the inaugural celebration was held Sept. 28 to Oct. 4, 1980.
