

OPENING — SOMETHIN' SPECIAL BEAUTY SALON

By Betty Brown

Last Sunday afternoon the Grand Opening of Somethin' Special was held. And indeed, Somethin' Special is SOMETHING SPECIAL.

This unique beauty salon, located in the Westgate Shopping also been a beauty operator at Kurls Chateau and most recently at the Galleria Beauty Shop located in the Galleria Shopping Center. It is at the latter shop that she became acquainted with her partner, Liz.

Center at Valley View and West Charleston Blvd., boasts a beautiful inviting setting, with attractive and comfortable wickerwear furniture and attractive wall decor.

Among the ultimate in modern design, the shop provides unique adequate lighting rendering a restive mood for patrons and a well-

A native Las Vegan, Liz has always been interested in working with hair and showed early in her life that she had a natural talent for it. She has been doing hair for fifteen years, but this is the first time she has ever been a proprietor of a shop.

Both Candy and Liz know their business.

planned interior arrangement allowing for minimum lost effort by the operators.

Service for the patrons is the most important thing at Somethin' Special. According to the co-proprietors, Candy and Liz, "we are striving for the epitome of unity within our total operation and courtesy and efficiency are our goals."

A former Californian, Candy moved to Las Vegas several years ago and was the proprietor of the Learning Tree, a tutorial service for children. A California Curl Technician and representative, she has

This, coupled with the fact that they know and respect each other, that they work well together and are both deeply interested in caring for and satisfying their customers, indeed makes their shop "Somethin' Special."
