

NINE HELD ON MORALS, DRUG CHARGES

During the pre-dawn hours last Thursday a raid was staged at Westside Story by the Metro Police department's Special Investigations Bureau and nine persons were arrested on morals and narcotics charges.

Moving in at 3:30 a.m., detectives, a SWAT team and canine officers rounded up the suspects after undercover agents allegedly observed nude dancing on a stage and porno films shown on a movie screen in the tavern, a popular night-spot near Owens Avenue and H Street.

According to the report, the suspects were charged with a variety of offenses, from performing an obscene act and public nudity, to possession of marijuana.

Metro explained that total nudity is not permitted under liquor license provisions for Las Vegas taverns.

Officers who took part in the raid said the tavern had been under undercover surveillance for two weeks before Thursday's action.

Asst. Sheriff Jere Vanek said Thursday the Police Department may seek a hearing for the owners of Westside Story to show cause why their liquor license should not be revoked.

The bar remains open until a decision is made, Vanek said.

Derrick Woodrow Wilson, 28, was the on duty bartender when police entered the crowded tavern. Charges were placed against him for allowing nudity in the bar. He was also charged with possession of a small amount of marijuana.

Charged with disrobing on the small stage were Delia Lynn Threats, 25, and Doreen Payton, 25.

Also arrested was An-nise Larue Bullock, 31, a part-owner of Westside Story.

Others jailed included bartender Georgia E. Vaughn, 36, charged with allowing public nudity and with conspiracy to sell marijuana.

Others arrested: Eleanor Barnett, 25, a changegirl charged with allowing nudity; Dorothy Marie Smith, 26, a waitress charged with allowing nudity;

Willie Sheaord, 43, a porter charged with obstructing a police officer;

Willie Owens, 37, a porter charged with carrying a concealed hunting knife.

OUTSTANDING BLACK BUSINESS OF THE WEEK

HAIR UNLIMITED, 1000 N. Highland, added a new dimension at the corner of Highland and Washington. Three young hard-working, aggressive ton-sorians took a giant progressive step and built a modern edifice that gives a restive approach to the barbering art. 10 years ago they started their Moulin Rouge Barber Shop on Bonanza Road. Owners Booker Burney, Edward Burney and Mack Smith plus their staff started the development of their dream with their groundbreaking for the new building during August 1980. The grand opening came to fruition on January 1981. Their staff has grown to 9 barbers, a manucurist and a shoe maintenance technician. Future plans call for the addition of 2 more buildings at the site and will comprise a video game arcade and a tailor shop. Financial assistance was provided through the Westside Credit Union. Hair Unlimited has been selected to receive the Las Vegas SENTINEL Outstanding Black Business Award for their keen foresight, aggressive astute business acumen and their contribution to the black business community and Las Vegas.
