

Fashions In Sepia Fashion Fair

Photos By Sepia Fashion Fair

The starting point for your new fall collection is leather... soft, supple, black leather, done in the manner of the bomber jacket with wide shoulders and matching pants. Worn over natural dark mink vest and hat. All by Clöbber of London. Black leather boots complete this ensemble.

Sweater dressing done in an elegant mood. Italian knit in sunstone beige, Ribbed is the coat trimmed in dark brown ranch mink, with matching cuffs. The slim drawstring waist dress is bordered in fur. From the Valentino Ready-To-Wear collection.

The layering of a stole that's completely versatile and beautifully trimmed in brown fox. Warped over a two-piece blouson pant suit in the purest of wool. By designer Jean Chales De Castelbajac. Bronze leather bag and shoes complete this ensemble.

Bobbie McDaniel In Sepia Fashion Fair Nov. 28

Bobbie Rochelle McDaniel will be one of the featured models in the Sepia Fashion Fair November 28 at the Aladdin Hotel.

Bobbi is a native of Las Vegas, where she attended St. Christopher Elementary School and graduated from Bishop Gorman High School in the spring of 1981. One of Bobbi's life ambitions was to become a high fashion model. With the help of the Hamilton-Vogue Esquire Models this became possible. Along with modeling, she plans to pursue a career in dance and, in the future, her long-range goal is to study psychology.
