1981 Grevhound Racing Season Ends Dec. 13, 1981

'If you haven't been to America's fastest growing spectator sport, I invite you to visit Las Vegas Downs before the season finale, Dec. 13, 1981. David Funk

Las Vegas Downs, the troubled pooch track at Menderson, not only in trouble because it can't or won't - open its facilities for horse racing as mandated by law, but it also hasn't yet applied next year's greyhound racing dates!

An advertisment appeared in the Las Vegas press this week signed by David Funk, senior track official, asking fans to visit the oval before its "finale" Dec.

"finale" Dec. 13.

There was no reference in the advertising to a 1982 race meeting.

Gospel Lady Takes Out After Pop Warner Net

LOWELL, Mass. — Anne D. Lineham, who describes herself as a Christian activist "in-volved in the Social Gospel," told the Board of Selectmen that gambling is so pervasive in the Wilmington area that more than $9,000 was made by the Pop Warner football league by means of lottery-type operations.

She's fighting the kiddie-ball lottery.

Cop Gets Caught In Gambling Sweep Net

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — A police operation using "hand to hand" investigative techniques, rather than telephone taps, broke up a lottery operation & resulted in the arrest of a police sergeaut on charges of conspiring with gamblers. Richard Lomax, owner of Annapolis Service Center, was picked up on lottery counts.

Two undercover Annapolis city policemen — Sgt.Russell Hall & Det. William Powell — said Lomax offered them bribes to "forget" he was operating. The arrested cop had a long record of meritorious service
