SHOWBOAT SETS BIG BOXING-WRESTLING CARDS

Thur., Jan. 21, through Thur., Jan. 28 — an eight-day period in which the Showboat Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center will present an array of top-notch sporting events including professional boxing, amateur boxing and the biggest name in professional wrestling.

On the 21st it'll be "Andre The Giant," all 7-foot-4-inches, 485 pounds of him, headlining a professional wrestling card.

On Saturday the 23rd it'll be amateur boxing matching the U.S. Navy team against a squad of all-stars from Nevada.

On Tuesday the 26th it'll be Azteca Promotions monthly professional boxing card.

On Wednesday the 27th professional wrestling returns.

And on the 28th it'll be the first ESPN monthly professional boxing card promoted by Bob Arum's Top Rank, Inc.

All five events will be held in the Showboat Sports Pavilion.

Wrestling on the 21st and the 27th starts at 8 p.m., doors open at 7:30, and ticket prices are $10 for ringside reserved and $5 for general admission.

Amateur boxing on the 23rd starts at 7:30 p.m., doors open at 7, and, again, prices are $10 for ringside reserved and $5 for general admission.

Azteca's professional boxing card on the 26th starts at 8 p.m., doors open at 7:30, while the ESPN card on the 28th starts earlier at 6 p.m., doors open at 5:30. Prices for both cards are $15 for ringside reserved and $10 for general admission.

Three Nevada Champs On Showboat Card

Five of the United States' very best amateur boxers along with three Nevada champions will be in action Saturday, Jan. 23, when the U.S. Navy team meets an all-star squad from this state at the Showboat Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center.

The card, which will have 12 to 18 bouts, begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Showboat Sports Pavilion. Doors open at 7.

The Navy team, which selects men from ships and bases worldwide and stations them in Santa Barbara, Calif., to train, includes five fighters ranked among the top 10 in their weight division.
