LAS VEGAN BLAINE DICKSON HEADS SHOWBOAT TUESDAY NIGHT CARD

Azteca Promotions returns to the Showboat Hotel Sports Pavillion next Tuesday night with another stellar boxing card.

The main event will match two outstanding junior lightweights. In the 10-rounder, Las Vegan Blaine Dickson puts his 14-5 record on the line against Leonardo Cruz, Tijuana, Mexico. Another 10-rounder sets up lightweights Gonzalo Montellano, Bakersfield (33-1-1 w/ 19 kos) and No. 4 ranked WBC — #8 ranked WBA taking on Darrell Stoval, Phoenix (14-6).

Several other bouts will be on the card with the first bout starting at 8 p.m. Tickets are on sale at the Sports Pavilion at $10 and $15.

SAND DRAGS APRIL 24 - 25 ON LVSRA RACING STRIP

The Las Vegas Sand Racers Association, a young but rapidly growing organization, will hold its fourth sand drag competition of the year Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 24 and 25, featuring the top fuel world record holder.

Competition will be held in 16 time brackets on the LVSRA strip located three miles south on U.S. 95 (the Searchlight-Needles Highway) which turns off the Boulder Highway at Railroad Pass between Henderson and Boulder City.

Times trials will be held Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. with single elimination racing beginning at 9 a.m. Sunday. A total of $5,000 in prize money is at stake.

Admission price is $5 for adults and $1 for children with those three years and under admitted free. Two-day price for adults is $8.

The brackets are governed by time with clockings ranging from those running under 2.91 seconds (bracket 1) to those going over 7.30. More than 150 machines from throughout the western United States are expected to compete.

A variety of vehicles will be in action including top fuelers, blown alcohol dragsters, blown alcohol funny cars, funny Jeeps, blown turbo-charged Pintos and VWs, big block trucks, sand rails, desert stockers, Baja Bugs, buggies.

DOOLITTLE TO HOST OPEN KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS

On Saturday, Apr. 24, Doolittle Community Center will host its first Karate Tournament, when Lonnie Walker presents the "Doolittle Open Karate Championships."

Walker is a Korean Tae Kwon Do Black Belt with eight years of experience in the martial arts.

The Doolittle Open

Karate Championships will feature some of the best karate fighters in Nevada, California and Arizona.

There will be divisions for small children, junior boys and girls, women and senior men. Contestants will compete for trophies in Kata, Weapons Kata and freestyle competition. The Black Belts and Brown Belts will fight for cash prizes and trophies at the end of the day.

Retired undefeated Nevada State Champ Stanford McNeal will serve as one of the judges for the tournament.

The tournament will start at 10 a.m. Price of admission is $2 for adults and $1 for juniors.

CCCC Offers Citizenship Course

If you are a resident of Nevada and planning to take the Naturalization test from the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, Clark County Community College is offering the course "Citizenship And You" from June 1 thru June 29, 1982 at Careers Realtors, 4632 South Maryland Parkway.

The classes will be held on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m.
