

Stan Colton Throws Hat in Ring

State Treasurer Stan Colton announced his candidacy for governor at press conferences in Carson City, Reno and Las Vegas. Colton said that an active Democratic primary will be good for the party's chances in November. He also roundly criticized state officials who have fallen into line behind Gov.

Robert List's call for a new round of public service budget cuts.

"Just last week, the entire hierarchy of Nevada state government was jumping to a single tune. There was unanimous concurrence with the dire predictions of desperation and gloom which were emanating from the governor's office.

He and his wife, Suki, have been married for 16 years. They are the parents of three children, aged 12, 13 and 14. Colton's parents are the late Gordon Colton and Gale Colton of Las Vegas and Searchlight, Nev. The Colton family traces its roots from Searchlight in 1897, and previous to that, Utah.

Moran Seeks Sheriff's Office In Coming Elections

John T. Moran, a former Las Vegas Chief of Police, filed for the office of Sheriff of Clark County, saying that the present sheriff had surrendered the city to criminals.

Moran thanked the many supporters who were on hand outside the County Registrar of Voters office. Moran stated that a great number of the people on hand were police officers or employees of Metro.

"I want to personally thank each of you for risking your jobs, your pensions and your families' futures to join me in this campaign," Moran told the crowd.

"This campaign is intended to offer you hope, also," Moran told the many police employees. "It's time that we put some pride back in the badge, and I will make that a top priority in my administration."

NSEA ENDORSES BRYAN FOR GOVERNOR SLOT

The Nevada State Education Association (NSEA) today proudly announces its unanimous endorsement of Attorney General Richard Bryan for election as the next Governor of Nevada.

"During his 10 years in the Nevada Legislature and more recently as Attorney General, Dick Bryan has demonstrated his support for teachers on the key issues," said NSEA President Marlan Conrad. Mrs. Conrad also pointed out that as Attorney General and a member of the State

Gene Collins Announces Candidacy

Gene Collins, a 22-year resident of Las Vegas, has filed as a democratic candidate for Assembly District #6. Collins said he filed for the office because the residents of the district are not being represented by the incumbent who has seldom voted on bills in behalf of the working class.

According to local media accounts, Collins said the present Assemblyman in District #6 was absent for 123 votes during the 1981 legislative session, and miss-board of Examiners, Bryan took the lead in securing emergency funding for hard-ed 167 votes during the 1979 session (more than pressed local school districts.

"Dick Bryan shares the view held by all any other Assemblyman). Collins calls this gross non-representation and highlights the total lack of concern and respect by the incumbent, for the people he was elected to represent.

Collins 39, an electrician, is active in youth programs and community affairs. He has attended Grambling University and UNLV.

An active member of Local #357, Collins resides with his wife Ruby and three children at 1101 Eleanor Avenue.

NSEA members that every child in Nevada has the right to a quality education," she added.

that are obsolete before they are produced, and for weapons systems so loaded with unnecessary electronic gear they won't work under battle conditions.

What good are all those sophisticated weapons if we neglect the investments in education that produce people with the skills to maintain them? What good are military contingency plans if cuts in infant nutrition programs result in fewer people healthy enough to serve their country?
