For The Daring . . .

Sensuality and extravagance of design teamed with a total immersion in color and pattern add up to the new strong, exotic and bold statement.

Knife-pleated silk chiffon harem pants, banded above the ankle, are topped here with a silk jacquard fitted bodice.

Stunning is the word for this outfit featuring a puff-sleeve jacket over a matching dirndl, accented with a bright turquoise silk cumerbund and an embroidered, bugle-beaded bare back bustier. All of the fabrics are silk jacquard.

Here, pure fantasy in a display of vivid color and small lavish prints on a silk jacquard coat with an undervest and full knee-length harem pants.
