TEN YEARS ON THE JOB — Mary Edwards, Management Assistant in the Graphic Arts Department at Clark County Community College, will be celebrating her eleventh year of service this coming September, and was recently honored at special ceremonies. Mary, married and the mother of three children, started at the college via the Manpower Program (prececessor to C.E.T.A.) first as a secretary, then in the bookstore and now in graphic arts where she does both layouts and word processing.

CCCC Registration In Progress

Registration for the two summer semesters at Clark County Community College is taking place now at the main campus site on East Cheyenne Avenue weekdays.

The ten-week courses will begin on June 7, and will end on August 13. The six-week courses will also begin on June 7, and will continue to July 16. For details call 643-6060.

CCSD HOLDS PUBLIC AUCTION OF OBSOLETE PROPERTY MAY 22

The Clark County School District will hold a public auction of obsolete property on May 22, beginning at 9 a.m., in the fenced-in area adjacent to the parking lot behind the warehouse at 4212 Eucalyptus Avenue.

The assorted items include vehicles, student desks and chairs, office furniture, typewriters, office machines, projectors, record players, tape recorders, kitchen ranges and refrigerators, shelving, wood and metal shop machines, metal lockers, picnic tables, chalkboards, miscellaneous furniture, scrap metal and much more.

Trade Center Accepting Applications

Applications are being accepted now for vocational programs at the new Area Technical Trade Center scheduled to open this fall.

High school sophomores and juniors may select from the program offerings which include culinary arts, construction trades, diesel mechanics, electronics, health professions and leisure and hospitality.

Interested students should see their high school counselors for an application. For additional program information, call the Area Technical Trade Center at 451-1088.

Register

To Vote Items for sale may be viewed prior to the auction from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., May 17 through 21 and from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on May 22. An attendant in the sale area will provide a complete list of items and minimum bid prices.

Personal or company checks will be accepted for the amount of purchase with proper identification.

Questions regarding the sale can be answered by the yard attendant or directed to the CCSD Purchasing Office at 736-5225 or 736-5226.
