

Fashions

Perfect dinner-suit dressing — modern, racy and strong:

Sensational is the word for this pant suit. The short wool grain de poudre jacket is accented with satin cuffs and lapels and tops straight-legged satin-striped pants. The camisole underneath the jacket is of silver bugle beads on silk organza. Extra dazzle is supplied by rhinestone jewelry and the pert black straw bowler.

The ultimate in sophistication is this navy blue pant suit, featuring a short wool gabardine jacket and matching pleated trousers. It is complimented with a silk jersey shell and a long chiffon scarf.

Wide white lapels give impact to this black suit of wool grain de poudre with a short cutaway jacket and short narrow skirt.

... Spotlighting the Dinner Suit

Spring and Summer

Hair and Fashion Show Held

The Southern Nevada Salon Owners Association presented its Spring-Summer Hair and Fashion Show at the Imperial Palace on May 23. The gala event, which boasted a record turnout from the community, featured well known stylists and models exhibiting the latest fashions.

Proceeds from the affair went to the Candle-Lighters Cancer Benefit.

Al Monnaco, owner of Headquarters Hair Salons (Las Vegas' largest hair salon business) and President of the Southern Nevada Salon Owners Association, said, "Las Vegas gains by such all around activity and appreciation, and that, by our honesty and integrity, is what we are for."

Commented Bryan Corleone, Producer and Theatrical Consultant, "Many similar events I have attended since becoming a MGM veteran performer; this was the most intelligent activity and fashionable event I have witnessed."