Golden Nugget Sponsors Scholarships

Nine local seniors have been named recipients of a newly established scholarship program sponsored by the Golden Nugget.

Responding to President Ronald Reagan's 1981 appeal to the American people to share in the burden of financing the higher education of its students, the Golden Nugget established an initial grant of $2 million to be dedicated for higher education scholarships for high school graduates in Nevada and New Jersey.

Renewable awards for varying amounts of money were granted to the following students: Chaparral High, Gregory DeSart and Carolyn Jean Wassell; Clark High, Veronica Ann Simone; Eldorado, Cheryl Ann Mueller; Rancho, Julia Black, Lori McLeod and Carol Savage; Valley, Tracey Church and Tammy Daledo.

Other winners from Nevada are: Bishop Manogue, Maureen Glenn; Reed, Jessica Yi-Chieh Wang and Rosalind Rios; Reno, Linda Morrison; Yerrington, Kent Blade.

Each spring, 20 one-year scholarships will be granted to be used at public universities, colleges or community colleges located in the student's home state of Nevada or New Jersey.

Any student with a grade point average of B plus or better may apply if they are planning to enter a post-high school program culminating in an associate or baccalaureate degree, or certificate of completion or license.
