

PHI DELTA KAPPA OBSERVES FOUNDERS DAY AND AWARDS DAY

Pictured standing from left to right are: Diedre Jenkins, winner of the annual scholarship awarded by the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. which was presented to her at the Founders Day Dinner and Jessica Perkins, member of the Scholarship Committee, who made the presentation of the award.

PICTURED ABOVE are some of the members of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, who attended the recent Founders Day Festivities at the Vineyard Restaurant. Seated in front from left to right are: Claudette Whitson, Grace McGlothen, Simmie Daniel, Shella Gilchrist and Patricia Rivers. Standing from left to right are: Jessica Perkins, Dorothy Powell, Lurlene Howard, Jackie Marcus, Pat Bynum, Gwen Ware, Gladys Cole, and Debbie Franklin. Not pictured are Ann Chapman, Shirley Barber, Claudette Enus, Lorecia Gass, Jean Dunn and Genie Wilson.

Diedre Jenkins, a recent graduate of Eldorado High School, was the lucky recipient of the annual scholarship awarded by the members of The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. following their successful Community fund raiser.

Diedre is a 4.0 honor graduate and plans to attend college at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo. She has been active in many athletic activities and has traveled to many parts of the United States and foreign countries.

It is with great joy and pride that the sorority presented this award to this most deserving young lady.

From left to right, top award winners are Grace McGlothen for Community Service, Shella Gilchrist (2 awards) for Soror of the Year and Outstanding Ticket Seller and Simmie Daniels, Basileus, holding the Roving Gavel, which she will pass on to the next Basileus when her term expires.

THE NATIONAL SORORITY OF PHI DELTA KAPPA, INC. observed Founders Day at Christ Episcopal Church. Later at the Vineyard Restaurant they received awards as follows: Seated in front is Shella Gilchrist who received 2 awards — Soror of the Year and Outstanding Ticket Seller. Standing from left to right are Jackie Marcus — Black History Award, Jessica Perkins — Black History Award, Grace McGlothen — Community Service Award, Simmie Daniel — Basileus Roving Gavel, Gwen Ware — Outstanding New Member Award and Patricia Rivers — Black History Award. Not pictured are Genie Wilson — Youth Service Award and Claudette Enus.

The members of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa Inc. (Gamma Sigma Chapter) recently observed their Founders Day by worshipping together at Christ Episcopal Church of which Simmie Daniel, Basileus, is a member. Each year they visit a different church in the community and leave an offering. Following the service, the group held a closed Founders Day Service and later met at the Vineyard Restaurant for a brief business session, awards presentation and dinner.

Top awards went to Shella Gilchrist, who won the "Soror of the Year" award for her overall participation in every project and most especially for her work with the Xinos youth group. She won a second award as "Outstanding Ticket Seller." Grace McGlothen was the recipient of the "Community Service Award, which was presented to her for her innovativeness in planning and effecting for two successive years a successful Community Fair involving the community, and for which the proceeds have been used for scholarships. She has also done an outstanding job with the NAACP in providing music for several Freedom Fund banquets and sold $400 in tickets for the last NAACP banquet, honoring Sammy Davis, Jr. She also did an outstanding job when she provided music for the Clark County Classroom Teachers Association (CCCTA) on the celebration of the first annual tribute to the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., which was held at the Continental Hotel earlier this year.

Black History/Teach-A-Rama Awards were presented to Jessica Perkins, Patricia Rivers, Charlotte Wilson and Jackie Marcus for planning and presenting a successful workshop.

Genie Wilson received the Youth Services Award for her work in organizing and leading the Xinos group. This group won all the prizes at the last Far Western Regional Conference.

Real Estate is a people business
Here is one of the people at Toler Realty

Residential Income
&
Land Commercial

Brenda Dumas

Brenda Dumas moved to Las Vegas from Pomona, California, in 1975. Brenda has been serving her real estate clients and customers for over two years. She and her husband, Joe, are members of Saint James Catholic Church. Brenda's hobbies include reading, bowling and her recently born daughter, Ebonee.

TOLER REALTY

1056 No. Rancho Dr.
Twin Lakes Shopping Center

MLS 648-0484

Equal Housing
Opportunity