JUDGE EARLE W. WHITE, JR. COMPLETES SUMMER SEMINAR

AT THE AWARDS BANQUET which closed the Nevada Judges Association's recent summer educational seminar in Fallon, certificates were awarded to all judges who successfully completed the approved course of study. Shown above (second from left) is Chief Justice E. M. "Al" Gunderson of the Nevada Supreme Court, presenting certificates to Judges Seymore H. Brown (far left) of Las Vegas, Earle W. White, Jr. (second from right) of Las Vegas, and James B. Kelly (far right) of North Las Vegas. The intensive course included instruction on laws relating to garagemen, lens, drug and alcohol abuse, failure to appear, and driving under the influence. Stress management, and court problems arising from bombings and hostage situations, were also considered.
