I also question your ability as a lawyer who has been appointed to enforce the laws and uphold the Constitution. No attorney, I believe, without some ulterior motive, would allow persons with approximately $126,000 in Food Stamps Coupons to go about making offers to sell same at bargain prices in a community which has an unemployment rate of about 18 percent and where food costs the most. To allow any agent of the government to do this would enhance the probability of selective prosecution.

These agents came into our community without having knowledge of a particular individual or individuals engaged in "trafficking of Food Stamps." They proceeded to go about offering the stamps in many cases at bargain prices. These food stamps allow one to obtain one of the basic necessities of life, FOOD. It would be naive on your part, Mr. Mills, if you thought these people would not buy these stamps.

You are not a dumb attorney. I happen to know that you are a very smart attorney. We would much prefer that you use your smartness to ensure equal justice under the law and not use poor people as pawns to aid rich and powerful politicians.

face could be so devoid of integrity, so lacking in the basic elements of decency, that he or she would embrace the support of those whose campaign tactics stoop to depths of a Goebbel or McCarthy level.

It is even more inconceivable that there could be any among us who would fall for that kind of garbage in this day and time. But it happens. So insidious is the "BIG LIE" technique, that its propaganda doesn't come off as garbage, and some of us swallow it hook, line and sinker — there the danger, the tragedy.

It was utilized by a former and contemporary (fairly) Vice President of the United States who, with quick, sarcastic wit, spat out untruth after untruth with equanimity, a great deal of charm and lamentably, with a great deal of success until the fickle finger of fate, disguised as the mosaic law of justice, took the blanket off him and exposed him as just another politician with feet of clay.

It is hard to believe that Nevadans will buy the kind of propaganda NCPAC is waging against Senator Howard Cannon, or that voters will be influenced by Congressman James Santini's campaign which is a maze of distortion and flat-out untruths.

But we are exposed to a barrage of falsehoods all the time in the name of political expedience, I guess. Not always are these as vicious as is the NCPAC — Santini campaign against Senator Howard Cannon, but we are constantly, almost on a daily basis, exposed to false statements — often from leaders in the most exalted positions in our nation.

For example: How often have you heard President Reagan, in his futile and failing economic recovery attempts, say that it has taken us 50 years to get into the economic mess that we are in today — that wasteful spending by past administrations over half a century is responsible for our economic

SHERIFF McCARTHY FILES FOR A SECOND TERM

Asserting that the Metropolitan Police Department has finally regained a position of trust in the community, John McCarthy filed for the Republican nomination for a second term as Sheriff of Clark County.

"We're in ... and we're in with both feet," McCarthy said. "The campaign starts now!" McCarthy says he plans to conduct a positive campaign based on issues, not personalities and mudslinging. The sheriff said the people of Clark County as well as his professional peers nationwide once again have confidence and trust in Metro PD. That fact is underscored by Metro's reinstatement in the Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit. L.E.I.U. membership had been lost during the previous administration.

McCarthy said his record of first-term accomplishments speaks for itself. Among the dozens of effective programs instituted during his first 3½ years as sheriff are the Neighborhood Watch and the Secret Witness Program. The latter has aided Metro officers in making many arrests in all categories of crimes.

Do you know when we last had a balanced budget in these United States? In 1968 — that's when. Do you know under whose administration that budget was balanced? Under President Lyndon Johnson — that's who. Lyndon Johnson, the "big spender."

Guess under whose administration we enjoyed a balanced budget previous to that of President Johnson. For four out of the last five years of the Truman Administration there was a balanced budget.

Seems to me there is an argument here to be made that the budget can be balanced while caring for the needs of the poor. Neither Lyndon B. Johnson or Harry S. Truman balanced their budgets on the backs of the poor. Of course, they were both wasteful, spendthrift Democrats.

No, friends, our economic troubles began in 1973 under the Nixon Administration and continued under Gerald Ford. But we hear this "last 50 years" of waste and big government spending over and over again until we actually believe it to be the fault of by-gone Democratic Administrations. This untruth is fostered on us in such a mild-mannered, soft-spoken, reasonable approach, we accept it as the truth. Obviously, it is not.

Neither are the surly charges of NCPAC and Congressman Santini against Howard Cannon.

We know who Senator Howard Cannon is, what he stands for, whose interest he bears in mind, and who he so ably represents. We owe him our allegiance and support.

Sometimes it just doesn't pay to stick to the "high road." Sometimes you have to stoop to the enemy's level.

I say let's fight for our Senator, our state, and our future.

Children's And Teenage Pageants Scheduled At Trop

The Tropicana Hotel will become the site of the 20th Anniversary World Pageant of the Universal Pageant System, Aug. 1-12, 1982.

The Universal Pageant System, under the direction of Marge Hanneman, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, includes six different pageant categories for the various age groups involved. "Baby Petite" age qualifications are 0-2 years; "Miss La Petite," ages 3-6; "Our Little Miss," ages 7-12; "Ideal Miss," ages 13-17; "Universal Girl," ages 18 and above; and "Universal Mrs." open to women 21 years of age and above.

These glamorous Las Vegas finals will complete the year long competitions that have been taking place throughout the United States. Over 200 girls will be vying for the most coveted children's and teenage titles in America.

All age categories (age 3 and above) include close-up appraisals, Evening Gowns or Party dresses competition, and Sportswear Modeling. Talent is also a requirement for all of the pageant categories, with "Universal Girl" qualifying for the prestigious "Miss America" pageant.

Local girls who are still interested in entering the "Universal Girl" segment (ages 18 and above) should contact Lyn Joyce, at 733-0322, or their local agency.
