GOODWILL CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST TO HOLD REVIVAL AUGUST 29 - SEPT. 4

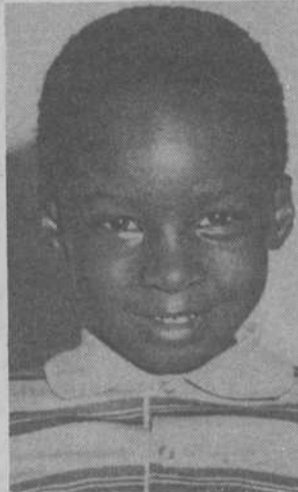

Goodwill Church of God In Christ, 976 Hassell St., pastored by Rev. C.L. Murray, will hold a SOUL SAVING REVIVAL praying for the sick and shut-ins at the church nightly, 7:30 p.m. until. All are invited to attend. Come share in this great revival and feel the power of HIS mighty work. Shown here are some of the many who have been healed and saved through these services.

Our church mother, Mother Marlowe, brought her grandson, Thomas Carter, to Goodwill. He had never walked and when he tried, he walked on his knees. He had braces on his legs for about six weeks. Mother Marlowe brought him to Goodwill and through Elder Murray the Lord healed his body and today he doesn't only walk but he runs. PRAISE GOD!

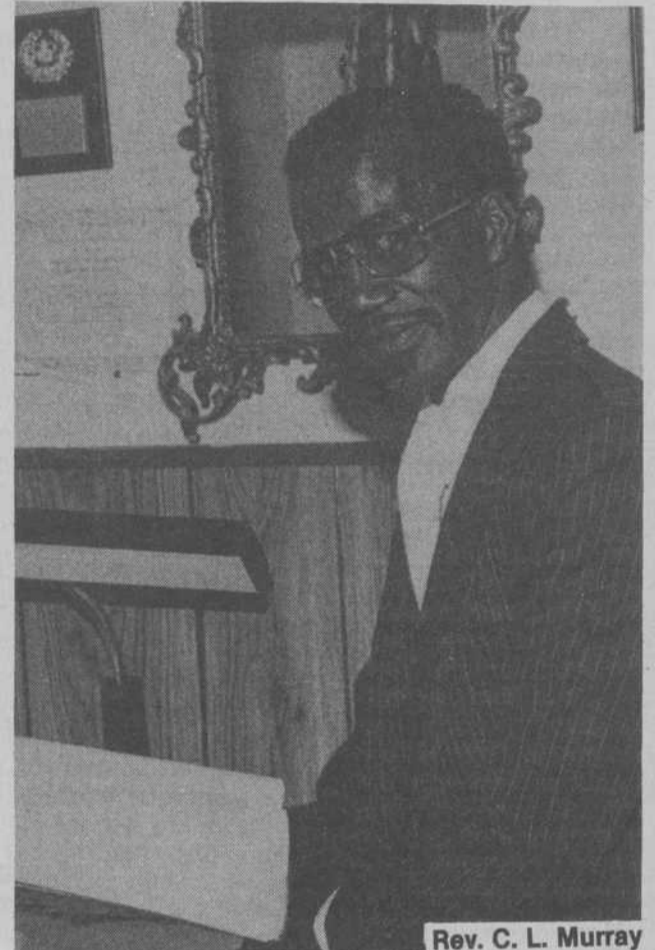

Sis. Charity Moore was diagnosed as having a malignant cancerous tumor in June of '79. She came to Goodwill COGIC in July of the same year. The Lord moved through Elder Murray and performed a miracle in Sis. Moore's life. September of the same year she went into surgery and the doctors couldn't find any sign of a tumor. PRAISE GOD!

John Robinson is Sis. Moore's grandson. From the expected age of speech up until this year, he has never uttered a word. He was only capable of moans and groans. The Lord came in and touched his voice box and tongue and restored speech to this little boy. Now you can't stop him from talking. Thank the Lord!

Mother Ethel House, one of the mothers of Goodwill, had a very painful and embarrassing skin disease on her hands. She had to wear gloves with the fingertips cut off so people wouldn't see it, because it was quite unsightly. Elder Murray called her to the altar, anointed her hands with blessed oil and within that next week her hands cleared and she came to church without her matching gloves for the first time in years. The Lord is a good God!

Rev. C. L. Murray

Lola Kennedy was a sin sick sinner. The Lord came in and saved her soul, healing her from sin. She says she's never felt better and that she feels brand new. When the Lord comes in, everything is made new. God is yet in the saving business.

Cheryl Bass, member of the Goodwill Church of God In Christ says "I'm so glad I am saved."

have continued in my former position and have been able only to vote for Senator Cannon, had not Santini opposed the Senator for his seat in the Senate.

My position was with a funded agency and I was "hatched" so I offered my services to the Senator's campaign at less remuneration than my former job. I don't idealize or idolize Senator Cannon or any candidate for public office. But I know Senator Cannon's concern for Nevada and all Nevadans. I know him to be a Senator of accomplishment, integrity and with a voting record he can run on with pride.

I know Santini cannot fill the Senator's shoes. I can imagine how he must panic about his future when he views the plethora of young Democrat talent we have in Nevada. I can understand why he would think he had to make his move now or be forever submerged by the likes of Harry Reid, Dick Bryan, Brent Adams, and — ad infinitum.

As for the Ministerial Alliance, I hope I am not alone in feeling sick at the continued "selling out" that goes on in the Black Community. Not for a moment do I feel that Blacks cannot enjoy the privilege of differences of opinion, and the right to support the political candidates of each individual's choice. But for heaven's sake and ours, let us operate as men and women of integrity, and let our choices be made by what each of us honestly believes to be the best for us and not just for the sake of self-aggrandizement or a few lousy bucks.

I support and the recommendations to my district as to whom they should support will be done only on the basis of meeting the needs of our people.

I will not be intimidated either directly or through the tactics of arresting members of my family to drag me into making a bargain of political support for some candidate who in good conscientiousness I can not support.

You know something, Mr. Judge? We will not support Moran, because we believe he is closely tied to Ralph Lamb.
