in so tight the guests could only tell where she was by following the spotlights or flashing bulbs ... National Newspaper Publishers' Ass'n, "The Black Press of America," has been invited to Soviet Union by that nation's top officials. The "Yes" have overcrowed the "No's." ... The retirement party of Elfreda Wright, former principal Wadleigh Intermediate School, was as warm and sincere as a baby's caress. The event at the Essex House was a testimonial to her worth to the profession and her dedication and deeds to the betterment of those who looked to her for guidance.

A LADY ON THE MOVE is what is being sald about the astute Theima Duggin, former deputy special ass't to the president for public liaison. She has been upped to special assistant to the president. The 32-yr old educator from Mobile is considered a powerhouse in the White House who gets things done for, and with Pres. Reagan ... The Secret Friends are mourning the passing of member Blanche Wells who died after a long Illness ... The pieces are falling in place for lovely and talented Debble Allen and It looks like our prediction is panning out as she heads for the blg lights . . . Tab Buford's, prexy Freedom Bank, annual 4th of July swim party was literally "all wet" poolside and skyward ... Miller's Lite Beer will put up the cash for the upscheduled Arthur Ashe/UNCF Tennis Classic. This serving is taking place at the height of the tennis season, Aug. 7th. at the USTA Center in Flushing Meadow, which I think is the "Louie Armstrong Stadium."
