Sunday afternoon, Aug. 12 will find enthusiastic supporters of Senator Howard Cannon assembling at a to-be-announced location for a tallgate to Zion Methodist Church, 2108 N. Revere where an inspirational program scheduled from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. will precede a buffet in the church dining room. A meeting has been scheduled for 5:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 3 at Zion Methodist Church to finalize plans for the giant Aug. 12 "Rally for Cannon." The meeting is open to all Cannonites wishing to participate.

I have been informed that the Sentinel is in receipt of a letter from an attorney retained by the Ministerial Alliance in reference to an article written by me which appeared in a recent edition of the Sentinel. As soon as my attorney receives a copy of the letter, I will respond as advised by legal counsel.

Meanwhile, we are presently precinct-walking for Senator Cannon. If we are in your neighborhood, we will welcome the opportunity to discuss the merits of our candidate and the issues that are important to black people. We'd love it, if you should like to join us in these last days before the election. Call 646-1080 if you'd like to get in on the action. It's great fun.

munity broke a long-standing tradition and voted Republican for McCarthy four years ago to get rid of Ralph Lamb. Moran who is also running for this office is being supported by Lamb. Vote for Avants. The black policemen seem to like him.

The above political races are those in which a split in the black vote could occur. I am hopeful that by my offering these recommendations, that split will not happen.

I have not recommended anyone in the Assembly races because only black candidates are running and the choice is clear.

also the poorest, the most subject to unemployment, and the most vulnerable to dislocation in a changing economy.

When minorities made up a small fraction of Americans, their conditions were prone to be ignored. As their numbers grew and they became concentrated in urban centers, it became harder to ignore them, although the nation certainly did — and does.

But can America hope to survive as an economic and world power without finally meeting the needs and aspirations of one-fourth of its population? Can such a huge minority continue to be excluded from the mainstream without enormous negative results for the shrinking majority?

Obviously not. Nor will tokenism take care of the problem. Even if white Hispanics, the most assimilated Asians, and the best educated blacks are grudgingly admitted to full opportunities, the numbers of those left behind will overwhelm the system.

But more positively, the growth of America's non-white population offers our nation a marvelous opportunity. By concentrating on job creation, skills training, and quality education, and by finally ending racism and discrimination, America can tap enormous new human resources.

Metro Police Identify Victims

Two men who killed each other in what appeared to be a shootout in an Ambassador hotel room have been identified by Metro Police homicide detectives Monday.

The victims were Joseph Reynolds, 57, a used car salesman who once owned Sun Auto Sales, and Genaro Marcello Parente, 36, whose last known address is the Ambassador Casino.

Parente, an ex-felon convicted on a narcotics charge, was stabbed numerous times and shot but apparently had time to fire several shots at Reynolds in the incident at 6 a.m. Sunday.

Homicide Sgt. Frank Jergovic said some white powdery substance found in the room was being tested at Sentinel press time to determine if it was cocaine.

Police said rooms on both sides of the scene were unoccupied and no one else in the hotel heard any noises relating to the incident.
