course, Earl White deserved and received my vote for his re-election to Justice Court. So, in part, that's the way my secret ballot went.

May I suggest that you make it a point to vote early on Tuesday morning. It helps us who are trying to get out the vote — And you'll have that good feeling all day.

Cannon supporters are invited to assemble at the Nucleus Shopping Center ("H" & Owens) at 3 p.m. to join the Cannon Caravan for a TAILGATE to the Mass Voter Education — Get Out the Vote Rally at Zion Methodist Church, 2108 N. Revere. The inspirational program scheduled for the Rally will include great choral music supplied by the gospel choirs of several local churches and will feature the dynamic Dr. Arthur E. Thomas as keynote speaker. By the way, Senator Cannon will participate in the TAILGATE.

Congratulations are in order for the Nevada Black Chamber of Commerce for staging a marvelous membership debut Friday. The luncheon, prepared by Mrs. Vera Bulloch, at Reuben's Westside Story was simply fabulous. Everyone missed Reuben. He was sent a carload of best wishes.

And, of course, the grand opening of Ruby Duncan's Operation Life Medical Center was everything she could have hoped for and what we all expected.

Everybody who is anybody in Nevada dropped in at some time or the other to help Ruby launch this long-awaited event. We are all happy for her and proud of her.

UNITY NETWORK PURCHASES NEW YORK'S WWRL

Unity Broadcasting Network — New York, Inc., announced that it has completed the purchase of WWRL — the only full-time AM radio station in New York City serving the Black community.

The acquisition, according to Eugene D. Jackson, Unity Broadcasting president, marks the third major radio station acquisition by Unity Broadcasting within two years.

Mr. Jackson said that Unity Broadcasting had assumed total management responsibility at WWRL, which has its studios in Woodside, Queens.

The purchase of WWRL, approved by the Federal Communications Commission, was made from the United Negro College Fund. The station was donated to the Fund by Viacom International.

The proceeds of the sale to Unity Broadcasting will be used to assist the College Fund's 41 private, predominantly Black colleges and universities. These institutions educate some 50,000 students each year.

The purchase of WWRL follows the acquisition by the company of two leading St. Louis, Missouri radio stations.

In November, 1981, the company acquired KATZ-AM and WZEN-FM from Laclede Radio, Inc. In 1980, Unity purchased two top radio stations in Philadelphia — WDAS-AM and FM.

Mr. Jackson said that WWRL, founded 55 years ago, "is an established and highly respected station that has consistently demonstrated leadership in providing quality news, information and entertainment programming to its Black listeners throughout the New York Metropolitan area."

"We are confident that, in the years ahead, through innovative programming that is sensitive to the needs and concerns of Black New Yorkers, WWRL will become an even greater educational and entertainment force in New York's communications industry," Mr. Jackson said.
