JACKSON STREET & ME . . .

by rudi jackson

How can one begin to express the heartfelt feelings of LOVE and Marriage as you watch two persons come to the point of care and caress as did a couple of lovers during this passing weeks ending. They and a well knit group of family and friends came from four sections of these United States to see them join their found love in the vows of matrimony here in our golden setting of glitter and glamour. At a glance one could see that they were finding this a wonderful time for life to be in tune with the universe and walk in gardens of floral scents and beauty. And that they did after they were chauffeur-driven in a plush limosine to The Candlelight Chapel on the Las Vegas Strip on October 9th, 1982 for their 1:00 pm wedding ceremonies to be completed. The lovely bride to be was Earnestine Johnson . . . The handsome groom Mr Tyrone Bradley.

Her adorning gown was done in soft tones of dusky rose while the groom was dressed in a tailored Panama White wedding suit. They shone like the stars of night on that cool and cloudless day as gusty winds sent the beauty of the day into the arms of the awaiting event for them and the night.

Her maid of honor was Mrs Joyce Greenlaw. The grooms best man was Mr Ernie Walker. Mr Robert Logan presented the bride down the aisle to the groom.

It was a smooth and well planned affair which left all in a glow of warmness long into the night and the next day and the next as the wedding party set out to honeymoon with the honeymooners here in the city of glitter and gold. And what a three day time of doing it there was and ME was smack dab in the middle of it all from mid-day Saturday until Monday afternoon when the last guest was on a Delta 747 winging back to Jackson, Mississippi. There was such a great abundance of love flowing amongst all till there was little time for even sleep. So much sharing and caring one for the others needs. I was blessed to be able to share of my knowledge, automobile, and time, with such warm and loving persons who let me know that they move and groove like they were doing all of the time in any city or setting. How SWEET IT WUZ! Wuz'n't it?

I/ME deeply enjoyed the pleasure of meeting and being one of the guests at the wedding, along with: Erta Logan, Barbara Giles, Velma Moore, and Robert Logan from Chicago, Ill. Mr. Walter Logan from Jackson, Miss., Juanita Moreland from Inkster, Mich., Mr and Mrs Herman Kirby from Cerritos, Calif. (the photo-man), Mrs Emily Walker from Los Angeles, Calif. (who created the bride's wedding gown), Gini Durden from Los Angeles, Calif.

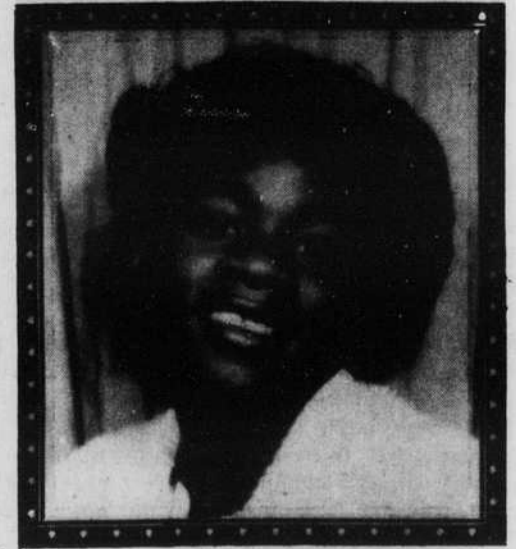

My joy again was in seeing a gentleman of many talents who had motor cared the bride and groom in one of his splendid motor cars (a Mercedes-Benz) to our city of fun and love. The dapper-dell Mr Ernie Walker from Los Angeles, Calif. Then there was Mr and Mrs Eddie Robinson from Chicago, Ill.

The after the wedding partying was up and down the strip, winning/losing,tun/fun,eating the best of foods, then on to see The Doris Troy and Jay Orlando Show in the "Start of The Strip" lovely Hacienda Hotel. The Stardust Hotel saw them finding rest, if any, and hanging a hat or two which they all wore so well and tasteful. And I had fun,fun,fun,till the airlines took them all away from ME to their varied places of dwelling. Moments of joy and goodness I/ME shall cling to for a life-time. And so will all who came to witness the united wedding of the now Mr and Mrs Tyrone and Earnestine Bradley . . .

The Black People In Our Community . . .

By: Regina Straughter

Black People in our Community, Friday night High School football games were alive and kicking it up and down the football fields in our city as the month of October rolled around, and is moving on. Some of the winning teams have been: Western High, Chaparral High, and Bonanza High School. Keep on having this good weather and many from miles around will turn out to see the outcome of the fine games of sports — Give Your All To Football, Fans!

One of the Tyro Models of Tiffany's-12 Social Club, Miss Dahauna Collier, who attends Rose Warren School, is 10 years of age and, in the 5th grade, is very happy and proud. Rudi Jackson asked me to interview her since she has so many things going and coming forth in her sweet little life.

Dahauna is excited over things, because she would like to be a good person in the roll of leadership at her school as she is in the community in which she is growing up (she is working with smaller girls in drill and modeling steps). She is trying to enter the field of leadership at her school by way of running for or seeking the office of President or Vice President of the students of Rose Warren School. Her aims are set to working hard to gain the op-
