"Salute To Cliff Trenier" at Frontier Nov. 5

Cliff Trenier, one of the famed Treniers, who have been veteran Las Vegas entertainers and have been a famed nightclub act for over 35 years, will be honored with a special "Salute to Cliff Trenier" in the Frontier Hotel's main showroom on Nov. 5.

The show, scheduled for 2 a.m. Saturday morning, is being staged for Trenier, who is now ill, by his fellow performers. Already slated to appear on the "Salute" are Peter Anthony, Pete Barbutti, Pat Cooper, Bill Cosby, Redd Foxx, Robert Goulet, Patti James, Keely Smith, Michelina Veith, Johnny Veith and Lovelace Watkins, with additional names to be announced. Reservations can be made by calling 733-2922 or 878-3045. Tax deductible tickets are $20.00 and $50.00.

The Treniers, led by Cliff and his twin brother Claude, have long career, including the Las Vegas Entertainment Award for entertained in Las Vegas since 1946 and have earned numerous awards during their Best Lounge Act and the Critics' Polls Most Outstanding Variety Group.

B.B. KING TO MAKE HIS FIRST STRIP APPEARANCE IN FIVE YEARS

B.B. KING, who has won every musical award given for his long career as "King of the Blues," will make a rare Las Vegas appearance in concert for one night only on November 22 at the Sahara Hotel Space Center. King, who resides in Las Vegas when he is not on a cross-country or international concert tour, will perform with his 12-man orchestra.

B.B. just back from another smash European and Canadian tour, has dubbed his Strip concert date "One of Those Nights" — a title King-addicts will recognize as being
