

SHOWBOAT OFFERS 3 IMPORTANT FIGHT CARDS NOV. 20 THRU NOV. 27

It'll be a busy eight days — from Saturday, Nov. 20, through Saturday, Nov. 27 — at the Showboat Hotel, Casino, Country Club and Bowling Center as far as boxing is concerned.

During that time two nationally televised professional fight cards and one two-day amateur tournament will be held in the Showboat Sports Pavilion.

On Saturday, Nov. 20, world-ranked and undefeated Hector "Macho" Camacho, probably the most exciting fighter in the sport today, makes his Las Vegas debut against undefeated Greg Coverson in a 12-round championship bout for the North American Boxing Federation junior lightweight title.

On Thursday, Nov. 25, Thanksgiving, it's the monthly ESPN card featuring Las Vegas junior lightweight Freddie Roach against Danny Cruz and undefeated slugging heavyweight Tony Fullangi against Ron Gibbs.

And Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26 and 27, it's the USA-Amateur Boxing Federation Western Regional Championships with the Camacho-Coverson card, promoted by Jeff Levine's Round One Productions in association with the Showboat, begins at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 20, with doors to the Showboat Sports Pavilion opening at noon.

Prices for Camacho-Coverson are $20 for ringside reserved and $10 for general admission.

The 12-round championship main event will be televised by CBS bouts for a total 52 rounds. The Thanksgiving show begins at 6 p.m. and doors open at 5:30 p.m.

Tickets are priced at $15 for ringside reserved and $10 for general admission.

The matchmaker for both the Camacho-Coverson and the ESPN cards is Las Vegas veteran Mel Greb.

The USA-ABF Western Regional Championships features approximately 20 open division fights both Friday, Nov. 26, and Saturday, Nov. 27, according to tournament director Lt. Hal Miller. Competition will be in all 12 weight classes, ranging from 106 pounds through super heavyweight.

The amateur action starts at 7 p.m. both nights with doors opening at 6:30.

Tickets are priced at $20 for ringside reserved and $10 for general admission.
