Even if you have a Sof 'N Free permanent wave you can still achieve the afro look by leaving off your moisturizer, letting your hair dry naturally and picking it out full and fluffy.

He can make waves or cut a dash with a Sof 'N Free curly perm.

LES FEMMES DOUZE (The Ladies Twelve) TAU DEBUTANTES (1982)

This is the ninth in a series of pictures featuring young women who have been chosen by Les Femmes Douze (The Ladies Twelve), a community service organization, to become Tau Debutantes for 1982. The young women will be presented at the annual Debutantes Ball in December.

Miss Kim Jaunice Hooks, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester C. Hooks. A student at Clark High School, she has received awards in music, dance and modeling. She plans to enter the field of Business Administration and become an accountant. She wants to attend Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. She has experienced extensive travel throughout the United States. Kim says being a deb is important because "it's very exciting and I get the chance to meet a lot of new people. Also, I will learn how to communicate with other people."

Miss Valorie Rena Lucas, 16, is the daughter of Ms. Rubie Lucas. She attends Rancho High School, where she is lettered in Varsity Basketball. She wants to attend the University of Long Beach and plans on a career as a social worker. She has traveled in California, Mexico City, New Mexico, Texas and Utah. On the importance of being a deb, Valorie says, "I feel that it is a beautiful opportunity to meet new people whom I've never seen before. It gives me broad experiences in how to get along with people in our community and our society. I have also wanted to get involved with new things going on around us."

Miss Delerrie La-Freece Ellis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard. She is 17 years of age and attends Valley High School. Her future plans include attending UCLA, where she will study to become a social worker. She has traveled in California, Louisiana and Mississippi. Delerrie says, "Being a deb would be a great experience for my senior year, getting to meet new people and do different things."
