

Fashions

Oscar de la Renta creates strong floral print patterns in multicolors. Evening pajamas with overflow panels over narrowing pants. A great mixture of color and drama.

Sepia Fashion Revue At Caesars Dec. 4

"Sepia Fashion Revue," the traveling fashion show featuring the VOGUE-ESQUIRE Models of Chicago, recently premiered its 1982 fall fashion show in Chicago. "Sepia Fashion Revue's" theme this year is "The Classy Look '82."

The show, which will be presented here in Las Vegas on December 4 in the Julius Room of Caesars Palace, will be sponsored by the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Proceeds from the event will go to the sorority's scholarship fund.

The traveling fashion production is sponsored in various cities by civic and social groups for the benefit of charity and the favorite charitable projects of these groups. Over the past 20 years, more than a million dollars have been raised by sponsoring groups, who each year give scholarships to worthy, deserving students who otherwise might not have had the opportunity to continue their education.

In 1977 the Las Vegas Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. presented a $350 Scholarship to Thelonia Plummer and two $100 book scholarships to worthy students at Texas Southern University. In 1978, this organization presented $3,500 to the United Negro College Fund for Scholarships. In 1979, Sherianna Wilson from Bonanza High School was the recipient of a $250 scholarship and the UNCF received $1,000 from this group. In 1980 Andrea Bradshaw from Rancho High School received a $250 scholarship. Antoinette Berry from Bonanza High School and Brenda Brown from Rancho High School were both recipients of $500 scholarships. In 1981 and in 1982 a total of $850 was presented to the United Negro College Fund for scholarships.

"The Classy Look" promises you an exciting collection of glamorous designer fashions that is sure to keep you on the edge of your seats. Shown in this year's production will be classic and casual daytime wear with lots of scarves, coats and capes, trim jackets, leather cumberbunds and long skirts with lots of movement. For late day and evening, there will be sumptuous black mixed with white: tuxedo suits as well as the short "flirt" look.

Director Hamilton and his wife have canvassed the fashion houses to bring to you one of the most exciting collections of fashions that, hopefully, you will ever see. There are no gimmicks in the "Classy Look" . . . just pure fashion excitement and over 175 outstanding designer creations that will delight the fashion-minded.

And for the ladies, fashions for the man will be a treat, for there will be beautiful male fashions expertly shown by three handsome top selected male models.

Don't miss this exciting fashion presentation as it comes to Las Vegas Dec. 4 at 8:00 p.m. in Caesars Palace.

This trio of beautiful and handsome models wears creations in black and white, which is the strong color combination this season and will be the order of showing when the Vogue-Esquire models of Chicago present their "Classy Look '82". Left, Oree Casler does the wide bloomer leg pajama with oversize white peau de soir bow on the bodice. Center, he wears Oscar de la Renta's black wool blazer over white gabardine pinch inverted trousers by Andre Smith. Right, this two-piece ensemble in draped quiana is by Charlotte Ford. All to be seen, yes, both models and garments, when the "Sepia Fashion Revue" comes to the Caesars Palace Julius Room on Dec. 4, being sponsored by the Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

A really pretty short evening dress for the fun of it and for those with great legs. It's the flirt in midnight black in layers of silk organza tiers by Jerry Silverman.

Unique and exotic is this fantastic sweeping gesture of a full flowing caftan gown that can be worn either long or short, depending on your mood. It's a "collision" of colors, prints and textures with its totally unique layering of fabric on fabric — golf embroidery on chiffon over silk. Different prints in floral all edged in gold metallic. Silk by Etro. Designed and made by Saraya of Casablanca.

