

PHI DELTA KAPPA SORORITY HOLDS SUCCESSFUL FAIR

As a result of a recent Community Fair Scholarship fund-raiser, the members of the National Sorority of Phi awards were presented to St. James Parish Catholic Church, and Gamma Phi Delta Sorority (Alpha Rho Chapter). A resume of their innumerable services was read by Community Fair Chairperson Grace McGlothen. All musical entertainers and booth participants received a participation certificate of appreciation.

Teola Williams, Basileus of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority (Alpha Rho Chapter), accepts Outstanding Community Service Award from Grace McGlothen, Community Fair Chairperson.

Maudra Jones beams happily as she accepts the African-American Cultural Services Award from Grace McGlothen, Community Fair Chairperson.

Delta Kappa, Inc., Gamma Sigma Chapter, will announce the winner of this year's scholarship at the Honor's Convocation Baccalaureate Ceremonies, sponsored by B-CON (Black Community Organization Network) Organization, which will be held Sunday, May 22nd at Second Baptist Church, 6:00 p.m.

The members of Phi Delta Kappa, a teacher oriented organization, are beaming happily over the success of the Fair and wish to thank all participants, KCEP radio, The Las Vegas Sentinel-Voice, Las Vegas Sun, the Las Vegas Review Journal and other medias which gave such fine coverage of this worth while project.

This organization whose purpose for existence is "To strengthen the Youth in our Society...by Developing their potentialities," is made up of very dedicated and hard working educators.

Recently their Xinos (girl's) youth group hosted a successful Far Western Regional Conference at the Imperial Hotel, which attracted over 300 young people.

Another credit for Phi Delta Kappa Sorority is the newly organized Decathlon (boy's) group, sponsored by Basileus Simmie Daniel and Claudette Whitson. Xinos (zenos) sponsors are Shiela Gilchrist and Gladys Cole.
