SENIORS HELPING SENIORS

by H.P. Fitzgerald

One of the Westside Community Development Commission's newest joint ventures is a Senior Citizens Work Training Project involving individuals from the Senior Community Service Employment Program. This program is designed to assist the area's low income senior citizen homeowners to preserve their properties. The team of seniors who perform this work at no cost to the homeowners are Frank F. Blanks, Sr., Curtis Cook, John V. Harper, Sr., J.D. House, Ernie Loob, and Richard Snedecor. As part of their work training program the team members refurbish and repaint homes, repair roofs, landscape properties, and prune shrubs. During the next phase of the program, which will get underway July 1, the team will get involved in servicing evaporative water coolers, replacing leaking faucets, minor electric repairs, and refinishing minor concrete, stucco, and plaster work.

Dinner-Program Honors Mary Louise Burton

An appreciation program and dinner honoring Mary Louise Burton will be held at the Doolittle Recreation Center, Lake Mead & "J" Street, on Saturday, June 11 at 7:00 P.M. Mary Louise Burton is President of the Nevada & California Interstate Baptist Convention, Woman's Auxiliary and a dedicated community servant. Cards and/or gifts will be appropriate. There will be no charge for dinner, but attendees may bring a covered dish if they wish. The message will be delivered by Mother Sweetie A. Porter, Supervisor of the Women's Department of the Church of God in Christ, Nevada Jurisdiction. Music for the occasion will be provided by the Las Vegas Chapter of the Gospel Music Workshop of America, and Children of the Redeemed, Greater New Jerusalem Baptist Church. Everyone is welcome.
