Winston-Salem, N.C. - The Hanes Group of Winston-Salem has named Elynor Williams of Greensboro as Corporate Affairs Director for the Hanes line of companies.

Elynor Williams

Williams, formerly a senior public relations specialist with Western Electric, will be responsible for the full range of public relations activities, including media and community relations, educational relations and contributions. She will also set public relations policies and procedures for the Hanes operating companies.

A graduate of Spelman College and Cornell University, Williams is active in many business, community and civic organizations. She is a former president of the Guildford County

Women's Political Caucus, vice-president of the Greensboro Drug Action Council, chairwoman of the Subcommittee on Federal Legislation for the Greensboro Area Chamber of Commerce, and member of the steering committee of the North Carolina 2000-Guilford County.

She is the current chairwoman of the Employment Task Force of the North Carolina Assembly on Women and the Economy, and serves as a Board Trustee for Guildford Technical Community College and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Williams has been listed in the Who's Who in the South and Southwest and the World Who's Who of Women. In 1981, she was named the Outstanding Young Woman of America for North Carolina. This year she received the Distinguished Alumna of the Year award from the National Association for Equal Opportunity in Higher Education, based on a nomination by her alma mater, Spelman College.

She is a member of the International Association of Business Communicators, NAACP League of Women Voters, and the Women's Forum of North Carolina.

The Hanes Group is composed of several companies, including Hanes Hosiery, Hanes Knitwear, Hanes Printables and L'eggs. It is a subsidiary of Consolidated Foods Corporation of Chicago.

WEST LAS VEGAS TO RECEIVE LOW INTEREST LOANS

Governor Richard Bryan Monday announced that $2.5 million is being made available for low interest home loans in west Las Vegas.

Governor Bryan said that the loan money will assist up to 100 eligible families in the community seeking to buy their first home.

Statewide the Nevada Commerce Department's housing division has issued $50.5 million in a single family residential housing revenue bond issue, which will enable lenders to provide FHA/VA home mortgages at 9.99 percent from the proceeds.

In his January 19 State of the State message, Governor Bryan committed himself to securing affordable housing for Nevadans.

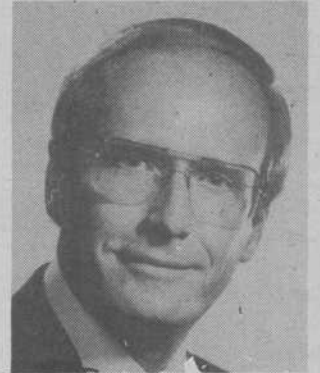

"This bond sale will enable many Nevadans to fulfill the traditional American dream of owning a home," the governor said.

"Nationally we see interest rates beginning another upward climb," Governor Bryan noted.

The following lenders are involved in the program:

Colwell Financial Services, First Western Savings Association, General Electric Mortgage Corporation,
