

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM PLANNED

Plans are underway to organize an Adult Education Program for the Las Vegas area. Present plans call for classes to be conducted in Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Spelling, and Business Education. Classes will be held 2 evenings per week, 2 hours per night in one of the local elementary schools.

An organizational meeting is planned to be held at the Zion United Methodist Church located at 2108 Revere Avenue, North Las Vegas on July 27, at 7:30 P.M. All Persons who are interested in attending the classes or are willing to assist with the program, are asked to please attend this meeting.

In addition to the courses listed above, seminars and workshops will be conducted in job hunting techniques, the job application, the old interview, and the written examination. With a staff of 5 certified instructors, each student will be taken from where he/she is academically in the above subject areas.

For further information please call Varicie S. Davis or H.P. Fitzgerald at 647-2177.

GOLF TOURNAMENT HELD TO AID YOUTH

(CARMEL VALLEY, CA) -- College scholarships will be awarded to five students as a result of the success of the 29th annual Western States Golf Association tournament. The tournament was played in Carmel Valley with over 800 association members participating.

Proceeds from the annual event go to the scholarships, and to support the association's junior golf program.

The tournament was sponsored by Anheuser-Busch, Inc.

The Western States Golf Association celebrated its 30th year as a minority golfing association during the annual tournament. Its 1,600 members come from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, Texas and Washington.

The youth scholarship program awards $5,000 each year to college-bound students, and has distributed over $55,000 in scholarships since the establishment of the program in 1974.

The junior golf program provides pre-teens and teen-agers with an active year-round golf program. Younsters participate in the association's golf clinics, training workshops and competitive tournaments. The annual junior golf tournament was held at the Lew Galbraith Golf Course in Oakland, with over 150 youngsters competing.
