

SOCIAL NEWS with A TOUCH OF "GRACE"

by Grace McGlothen

AKA "FASHIONETTA '83":

The well-known Theta Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority presents "Fashionetta '83" at Paul Anka's Jubilation, 75 E. Harmon Ave., on Saturday, Oct. 8 from 4-7 p.m.

Featured in this spectacular show are professional and amateur models displaying fall fashions for men and women. Individualistic, comfortable, and colorful outfits with mixtures of varying tones and textures will highlight each segment.

Ticket purchases will include the fashion show, hor d'oeuvres, complimentary beverage and patron acknowledgements.

Proceeds will benefit the AKA scholarship fund and other service projects.

The planning committee, chaired by Roxie Reaves Witt includes: Sherri Sullivan, Charlie Germany, Gloria Brown, Marie McClary, and Margaret Crawford, chapter president.

For tickets and more information, contact Roxie Witt, 451-9037; Margaret Crawford, 642-7143, or any member of the organization.

PHI DELTA KAPPA NEWS:

Our heartiest congratulations goes to Phi Delta Kappa Soror Claudette Wilson, who was recently appointed Dean of Students at Chaparral High School. Claudette was a former teacher at Rancho High.

NEW BASILEUS:

Mrs. Debbie Franklin, a teacher at C.C. Rennow Elementary School, is the newly-elected Basileus for Phi Delta Kappa Sorority. She recently received the gavel from former president, Soror Simmie Daniel of El Dorado High School.

KUDOS:

The new name for the Phi Delta Kappa boys group is KUDOS, which means fame and renown resulting from an act or achievement: PRES-TIGE. This change in name was made during the recent National Conclave held at the Los Angeles Wilshire-Hilton Hotel. The former name was DECATHALONS.

Can you live with the

SEPIA FASHION SHOW TICKETS:

Don't forget to secure your $15 tickets to the Sepia Fashion Show of Chicago, which will be held at Caesars Palace on Saturday, Dec. 3 at 8 p.m.

For tickets call me at 6497174 or contact any member of the sorority.

ROWE

from page 9

would void her pay-or-play agreement, meaning she would be paid even if the show closed before its time, which it did. The producer's action was allegedly taken after the star went to Nashville with hubby Miles Davis for an award ceremony, and had plane connection problems. "Corn" did not fare well on the big street with the critics damning the revival and Ms. Tyson and it was slated to close after dropping more than the $1,200,000 it cost to produce. The Chgo. and L.A. run scheduled to follow the B'way stint, have also been cancelled . . .

The concert flick of Richard Pryor, "Live on Bourbon St.," will be released this month. The theatrical feature cost Columbia, with whom rich Richard has a 3-pic-pact, $1,200,000 . . . Mary Wilson is buying up all the newspapers to eye the critics opinion of her leading The Supremes back into the spotlight of the Sands, Atlantic City . . . How about Al Jarreau acting like Nat King Cole in a biopic about that mighty supersinger. If you think that's one for the ears, B.B. King and James Brown got their sounds together at the Beverly Theatre in L.A. . . . "Webster," the new ABC-Net series has been eyed and eared nationally as a hit. It's well together on the warmth of some good writers and the talents of Susan Clark, Alex Karras and young star-to-be Emmanuel Lewis.

TO HONOR A GREAT lady, the Juvenile Justice Commission, San Francisco, will hold a memorial service next

The show promises to be a knock-out with high fashions, scholarship presentations, disco

A TOUCH OF ETIQUETTE:

1. A bride-to-be chooses her bridesmaids from among her friends, and customarily includes her sisters and those of her fiance. Bridesmaids may be married or single.

2. Every family has certain things it doesn't wish discussed or even mentioned in public. It may be a financial matter, it may be about an illness, or it may be a personal relationship, but no one — parent or child — has any right to talk about these things to anyone.

3. Listening in on sister's or brother's telephone conversation is a no-no.

wk., Thursay, for Lois Towles Caesar. At the same time it will dedicate the chapel on the Youth Guidance Cntr. grounds in her memory . . . A few wks back the Nat'l Conference of Black Mayors honored among its black media folks an old buddy Mal Goode, who broke the network news correspondent's ice here awhile back with ABC-TeeVee. And by the count Doc. Young, neither he nor this scribe has reached 80 yet. The column you took that from was about our good friend Dick Campbell . Hey Doc, these specs are for you . . . Those invites should be in your hands for the Nat'l Coalition of 100 Black Women 2nd Annual Candance Awards. Spotighting Black Women of Accomplishment, the black tie event is by invitation presented at the Met. Museum of Art by Baileys Irish Cream Liqueur . . . Thelma Saunders is navigating very well after a fall broke her hip . . . Elvira Davis, Sammy Davis Jr.'s mom, is out of the hospital after that scary heart attack . . . Altovise Davis, Sammy's spouse, has accepted the St. Louis Sentinel's invite to make this yr.'s presentation of its "Yes I Can" Award, given in honor of her total talented husband . . . If you're within a taxi run of the Billie Holiday Theatre, Bklyn., N.Y., go see "Friends," the prolific Samm-Art Williams' new play . . . Philip Rose and his production partners have collected a most diversified cast for their new B'way musical, "Amen Corner." Based on the James Baldwin dancing, cocktails and hor d'oeuvres. Unbelievable but true. Yes, all this for $15.

be a financial matter, it may be about an illness, or it may be a personal relationship, but no one — parent or child — has any right to talk about these things to anyone.

3. Listening in on sister's or brother's telephone conversation is a no-no.

ZION METHODIST HOSTS FOURTH ANNUAL HAWAIIAN LUAU

The Zion United Methodist Church will host its Fourth Annual Hawaiian Luau on Saturday, Oct. 1, 1983, at 7:30 p.m. The event will be held in the Church Garden Park, adjacent to the Sanctuary at 2108 No. Revere St., North Las Vegas, NV. The Luau will feature a Hawaiian-style roast pig over an open pit. There will be other meats, salads, desserts and soft drinks to please taste buds.

Mrs. Yolanda Walker, chairperson, has organized an evening filled with entertainment and fun for your enjoyment.

Mt. Charleston Camp and Picnic Grounds Closed For Season

Monday, Sept. 19, was the last day of operation for most developed recreation sites in the Toiyabe National Forest. All camp and picnic grounds except Kyle Canyon Campground are closed for the winter.

Kyle Campground will remain open until deep winter snows force its closing, according to District Ranger Bob Hawaiian dress is optional but persons appearing in the most unique Hawaiian dress will be given special recognition. There will also be a special appearance by a Hawaiian Dance Troupe.

The Luau is one of the many activities presented annually by the members of Zion United Methodist Church to both entertain and raise funds. All funds raised from this event will be applied to the building fund. You may purchase tickets at the church or from members at $10 per person.

Wize. "The autumn season at Mt. Charleston offers a special charm for outdoor recreationists," Wize continued. "Crowds are gone, the aspen trees turn a bright yellow, and the cool air suggests the coming of winter to the mountains."

The Ranger cautioned that night temperatures fall below freezing and sudden snow storms are possible at any time.

NEVADA'S LARGEST AND MOST COMPLETE BLACK COMMUNITY NEWSPAPER

play, it will star Ruth Brown who is better known in the rhythm and blues whirl rather than the legit theatre confines of B'way. But it was Philip Rose who really called attention to Sidney Poitier, Claudia McNeil and the late Diana Sands with his Lorraine Hansberry prize play, "A Raisin In The Sun." . . . "BLACK IS BEING MAYOR IN THE CITY AND BANNED IN THE SUBURBS," Langston Hughes . . . STAY LOOSE . . . Billy Rowe is a syndicated columnist.

647-4217

Automatic Washer and Refrigeration Service Co.

OLIVER BAKER, Owner

Authorized Service on All Types of Home Appliances

820 M.W. BONANZA RD.

LAS VEGAS, NEV. 89106

Service on all major appliances

Washers
Dryers
Refrigerators
Garbage Disposals
Hot Water Heaters
Ranges
Freezers
Window Air Conditioners
Garbage Disposals