SOCIAL NEWS with A TOUCH OF "GRACE" by Grace McGlothen

FROM THE WHITE HOUSE

The students and faculty of Jo Mackey school recently received credit for the excellent Physical Fitness Program from White House Chairman George Allen, President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

Mr. Allen said that "Your school qualified a higher percentage of students for the Presidential Physical Fitness Award than any other school of similar enrollment in your state. This accomplishment is a tribute to the high quality of your school's physical fitness program."

However, much credit should be given to Coach Joe Lobell who taught Physical Fitness classes at Jo Jackey for many years, but transferred to another school this fall. Congratulations, Joe!!

CONGRATULATIONS,

Two weeks ago we told you that lovely Patricia Buford of North Las Vegas had left Las Vegas to search for a job as a High Fashion Model in Dallas, Texas. Three days after her arrival in Big-D (Dallas), she was hired by Neiman-Marcus department store.

Pat left us with a positive attitude so we are not surprised to hear the good news. All we can say to Pat and other ambitious young people is to KEEP ON STRIVING! KEEP ON CLIMBING!
