Man Gets Jail For Attacking Three With Fork

District Judge Donald Mosley Monday sentenced a man who dresses as a woman to 12 years in prison for attacking a family with a long carving fork in May. Herbert Moore, 27, was sentenced to six years each on two counts of false imprisonment with the use of a deadly weapon. The sentences are to run consecutively.

Mosley gave Moore credit for 135 days he has served in the Clark County Jail. Moore pleaded guilty to the charges in October after Mosley declared a mistrial in his trial on two counts of second degree kidnapping and attempted grand larceny in the incident. That trial ended in a hung jury at 11-1 in favor of conviction.

Unidentified Man Shot In Back Of Head

NO. LAS VEGAS — Police are attempting to identify a man who is in critical condition after being shot in the back of his head Tuesday morning.

ing to the street across from her apartment at about 6:45 a.m. She told police the man appeared to be drunk the way he was teetering back and forth. But when police arrived at the scene, they found a black male with "a scraggly beard," in his late 20s or early 30s, with a gunshot wound to the back of his head.

Sgt. Gary Rainey said a resident in the 100 block of East Owens Ave. told North Las Vegas Police that she saw a man stumbling and fall-
