JACKSON STREET & ME..

By Rudi Jackson

The lovely young lady came in out of the cold and windy night right on time with ebony face full of smiles. She was not alone because she is always sharing her life with other persons upon this earth... Plus... she was riding with them. Namely: Her cousin Monette Custard and three lovely children, Monique Custard — who is an actress and is going to perform with her cousin, who this is all about, and ME shall reveal to you in just a few... O.K.

But they will be in the play "CHRISTMAS IN LAS VEGAS — 1893" Monique will play RUTH BROWN, the little girl at THE LAS VEGAS LITTLE THEATER on Spring Mountain Road Dec. 10, 11, 17, & 18. Two shows daily, 3:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. curtain time. (Make plans to see it and take the children).

Oh yes! The other children were: Denise Wade, 6 years of age, and Justine Anderson, age 4. Now with that bit of information out of the way we got to the nitty/gritty of what this was all about and just what Charming Miss MARINETTA ANDERSON is doing with her so-busy self these days.

Softly she spoke of how she had just completed a course in a local beauty college and is now working as a hair stylist in the Beautiful Miss Dee's International Beauty Salon on South Highland Drive. Then there is her friend, Vivica Smith — dancer and pianist. The two of them are putting a dance troupe together.

Male and female dancers.

Marinetta has moved onto many pathways sharing her talents with the children of the earth, since graduating from Eldorado High School in 1980. Dancing, acting, singing, attending C.O.D. (College Of The Desert) in Palm Desert, Calif. There has been schooling and learning at The Institute of Nevada of professional fashions sales and make-up artistry, and from Marinello School of Beauty she graduated with many high honors.

During the last three years she has worked, often starring, acting in stage plays, such as: Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope, Hair, Day of Absence, For Colored Girls, What Can Happen To A Dream Deferred, Whistle Stop U.S.A. — for which she did the choreography, and, soon to be seen in Christmas In Las Vegas-1893. Not only is she an actress, but, a highly active dancer reaching out for greater goals in both cultural arts, cosmetology and cosmetician.

She trained with Palm Springs Dance Company of
