WEST LAS VEGAS HOLDS SECOND ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARADE AND FESTIVAL

The Jackson Avenue Merchants Association will initiate a Yuletide policy by staging the "Second Annual West Las Vegas Christmas Parade Festival," Saturday, Dec. 17.

Staging area for the parade is the corner of Jefferson and "D" Street from whence the parade will begin at 12 noon. Leading the parade will be Santa Claus (Paul Dawkins) riding atop a fire engine. He'll be bearing gifts and candies for West Las Vegas community youngsters. Additional parade entries will include a sparkling array of Christmas carolers, marching bands, drill teams and entertainers, who will parade down "D" Street to Jackson Avenue and over to "G" Street.

Following the parade the performances of entertainers will be staged on the corner of "E" and Jackson Streets. Some of those in store will include Love All People and vocalist Odia Coates, as well as a few surprise performances.

The festive occasion is sponsored by the Jackson Avenue Merchants Association (JAMA). Reverend Sam Roberston, JAMA President, said that the members of the organization hope that all the community organizations and churches will join JAMA to make this a memorable and gala event for the children of West Las Vegas and surrounding communities.

An invitation is extended to all who want to participate to call Shelby Givens at 385-4144 (NEDCO - Nevada Economic Development Company).

NAACP To Hold Fundraiser

The local chapter of the NAACP Freedom Fund Committee will present a Disco Dance Fundraiser at the Marina Hotel from 10 p.m. until Friday, Dec. 16. Donations of $5 or more will be accepted at the door. Anyone arriving before 10:30 p.m. will be admitted for half price.

Contact David Phillips, Esq., regarding any details at 649-0931.

Library Volunteers

People need libraries and occasionally, libraries need people to help them help people. The Clark County Library

District has a unique and effective volunteer program made up of citizens who have a few extra hours to spare and a wish to make those hours count.

For further information visit the volunteer department or call 733-7810.

"Cannon" Shannon Pleads Innocent

Professional boxer Willie "The Cannon" Shannon pleaded innocent Monday in District Court to charges of raping a woman in the restroom of a North Las Vegas park.

Shannon, 32, pleaded innocent to charges of battery, first-degree kidnapping and sexual assault during an arraignment before Judge Donald Mosley, who scheduled Shannon's trial to begin Feb. 27.

Shannon, a boxer in the light heavyweight division, is accused of raping a 29-year-old woman on Oct. 19 in the women's restroom of City View Park on Cheyenne Ave.

He also is charged in the criminal complaint with twisting the woman's arm and dragging her in a chokehold from a car and into the restroom. The woman told police she was on a date with the fighter and after driving around for a while they wound up at the park.

In September, a District Court jury acquitted Shannon of sexually assaulting a 14-year-old girl at an apartment of a friend.
