RUTH HARRIS HONORED

A special "This is Your Life" testimonial program was held on the 1st Sunday at 3:30 p.m. at Pilgrim Church of Christ Holiness, 1515 "D" Street, honoring Miss Ruth Harris, a cornerstone member and oldest daughter of the deceased Elder George Harris, who once pastored this church.

People from all walks of life turned out to pay tribute to this Christian young woman who has lived an exemplary life, bringing love to all family and friends who knew her.

Miss Harris is a devoted member and a hard worker in her church. She is also a very devoted school secretary who has worked at Madison Sixth Grade Center, Kit Carson, Jo Mackey and presently at Elbert Elementary School. She is very kind and helpful to all students and teachers who know her.

May God bless and keep you in good health, Ruth,

ACCOLADES FOR DELTAS

What proved to be a tremendous success was the fabulous Sepia Fashion Show hosted by Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. on last Saturday evening at Caesars Palace.

Hats off to all my hard working sorors who outdid themselves by selling more tickets than they ever did before, thus attracting a super crowd.

Everyone with whom I spoke had nothing but accolades for Delta, for they all had an enjoyable evening and their monies for scholarships were well-spent.

People also commented that it was well-organized and that they had a lengthy eye-full of exciting fashions.

Scholarship participants and winners included Rana Kirkland, Felicia Hayes, Kim Houston, Debra Turner, Rhonda Ventrafs, Sheila Jackson, Janell Jones, Stethen Collins, Sebredia Reaux, Sherion Bailey, Jeaneen Flowers, Janelle Pughsley, Shellita Jones, Thalia Stett, Monica Tejada, Nedra Ned, John Ealy, Tracy Dunn, Wendy Nichols, Michael Phelan, Michelle Lee, Cheryl Freeman, Brenda Gray, Melody James, Doretha Jenson, Janet Payton, Johnette Redmond, Delenious Parks, Juanita White, Donna Hobbs, and Nyleen Smith. Some of these students received large scholarships and book awards. Over $3,000 in scholarships were disseminated.

Lots of useful door prizes were won by lucky ticket holders, and there were delicious refreshments and disco dancing. A real night of fun!

DEBUTANTE BALL

Coming up this Saturday night, Dec. 11, at 8 p.m. at the Dunes Hotel, is the annual Debutantes Ball sponsored by Les Femmes Douze, using the theme "Reflections II." This is always a beautiful, cultural affair and I am looking forward to attending and enjoying it.
