A TOUCH OF ETIQUETTE

- When making a telephone call, let the number you are calling ring at least eight or ten times before you hang up, for it may not be possible for the person you are calling to answer immediately.

- When you are driving and a car ahead of you stops and prepares to reverse into a parking space, do stop well behind and give the driver plenty of space to maneuver. Never sneak in and steal his space.

- When finished drinking or eating, don't ever leave your spoon in the cup or in the cereal or dessert bowl, or the fork in a shrimp cup. They belong on the saucer or plate underneath it.

Men Involved In Drug Deal Robbed Vegan

A 37-year-old Las Vegas man was robbed of $1,700 in cash late Saturday when the two men involved in a drug deal jumped him, Metropolitan Police reported.

Police said Thompson of 2020 Collins Ave. met the two suspects for a drug deal and drove them to Decatur and Charleston Blvds.

Thompson told police he took the cash from his pocket and the suspects jumped him, forcing him to take a pill that knocked him out.

When he awoke, he found that he was tied up with tape, reports stated. Passers-by cut him free, police said.

ED BROWN AROUND TOWN

The Nucleus Plaza Family Doctor Medical Center opened last week in the Nucleus Plaza Center, 932 W. Owens. The Center provides all doctor services including laboratory, x-ray services, all emergencies and hospital care. Free transportation is provided for those unable to get to the offices.

The election rumor mills are grinding throughout the community. The names tossed around are those of Assemblyman Lonie Chaney said to have eyes on Woodrow Wilson's County Commission seat. In this regard, Dr.

William Pearson, former Las Vegas City Commissioner, has announced his intentions of running for the County seat. Considerable activity is said to be developing for Chaney's Assembly District 7 seat. The names bandied about are those of Louise Jordan, Cranford Crawford, Morse Arberry and Bill McCurdy. On State Senator Joe Neal's upcoming candidacy, some are kicking around the name of Atty. David Lee Phillips (Ruby Duncan's son) as an aspiring candidate for Neal's seat. Phillips recently passed the Nevada Bar exam. There's a Duncan family denial at this point. . . . Some are speculating the name of Bob Bailey will surface in due time for some important seat.

G & S Auto Repair, 1601 N. "D" St., was burglarized Tuesday night. Entrance to the building was not gained, however, a rear window was broken and some items taken from a tool box situated in front of the window.

The facade renovation at the Survivor's Plaza in the 1300 block of "D" Street has given an enticing look for the area. Businesses particularly benefitted include the Religious Emporium, Wesley Barber Shop, Andy's Liquor Store and Survivor's Fish. The Jackson Street Improvement Association's total area effort has certainly given some impetus toward the improvement of the business community. All are to be congratulated.

Congratulations are also due the Chicago BBQ and Pop's Kitchen formerly Mom's Kitchen, both located on Jackson Street, for their new business ventures recently developed in the area. We wish for them much success.

SCOOP (ice cream parlor) and Towers Que (fashionable barbecue restaurant) are being developed in the Nucleus Plaza Center. The management group of the Plaza are delighted with these new developments to include the Nucleus Plaza Barber Shop, a winsome addition this week. SCOOP will open during the month of May while Towers Que targets for Feb. 1.

Last week the SENTINEL-VOICE gave its annual report on the top headline stories of 1983. Among them was an account of Corrections Officers Lovell Gaines, Donna Smith and Clyde Johnson who were charged with alleged implication of the trio in the murder of Corrections Sgt. Vincent Tatum. Our reports earlier and with our Jan. 5 issue reported, as was done with the city's daily papers, that Gaines was suspended and later placed on administrative leave with Smith and Johnson. The Sentinel-Voice has now received a call from Donna Smith indicating that she was only placed on administrative leave. We feel that we have reported such procedure as she indicates. This paper has since discussed the procedure with Gaines and learned that he too was only placed on administrative leave. The Sentinel-Voice wishes to express its regret for any misunderstanding and wish to apologize for any inconvenience or discomfort the article may have caused.
