Achieving Against The Odds

Doing a tremendous job in this community is Bobbie Troutman who can be heard every Saturday morning, at 11:30 p.m. over Radio Station KCEP where she manages an All About Women talk-show. She is also a Reading Specialist at Cashman Jr. High School and innovator of a multi-cultural organization in Las Vegas.

Last week I heard this humanitarian broadcasting from the Meadows Mall where she interviewed several members of the Las Vegas League of Women Voters on the observance of their Community Fair.

She was very articulate and totally involved in what she was doing. She asked many significant questions regarding the purpose and function of the League of Women Voters who were out there urging everyone to register to vote.

Mrs. Troutman and hubby, Dr. Porter L. Troutman are the sponsors of the distinguished exhibition of Black Women who achieved against the odds which is scheduled to be shown on the following dates:

Sat., Jan. 28 - Westside Library, 1402 No. D St. 9-5 p.m.

Sun., Jan. 29 - Pentecostal Temple, 1117 N. F St. 3 p.m.

Sun., Feb. 12 - Second Baptist Church, 500 Madison St. 3 p.m.

Fri., Feb. 17-18 - Multi-cultural Conference, Holiday Inn, Center Strip. 1 p.m.

Sat., Feb. 18 - 2nd Annual Awards Day Banquet - A Tribute to Black Women, Moyer Student Union, UNLV. 3 p.m.

Sat., Feb. 25 - Sahara Hotel Space Center, Nikki Giovanni, Poet. 1 p.m.

Sun., Apr. 15 - Zion Methodist Church, 2450 Revere St., NLV. 2 p.m.

Please put this on your calendar.

Joe Mackey Highlights

Joe Mackey School is urgently in need of a Boy Scout leader for neighborhood student activities.

Anyone interested in this position phone Joan Tansey, Principal at 642-3287.

Students at Jo Mackey are quite often exposed to educational trips in and out of town. They have made several trips to Disneyland, attended ballets at UNLV, visited the home of Siegfried and Roy, skiing at Brian Head and plans are now on the way for a trip to the San Diego Zoo and more skiing at Brian Head.

These trips are attended by students who are well-disciplined and have a good grade average.

"Who Done It?"

The students of Jo Mackey Sixth Grade Center explored the fields of Language Arts, Drama, Dance, and Music as they presented a play to end their semester training by Margaret Herod, Drama Coach; Margo Penrod, Dance Specialist; Douglas Wilson, General Music Specialist; Tim Kuskye, P.E. Coach; and Greg Young, Computer Specialist.
