Texas (ME home state — OH YEAH!) Well she bees the mother-in-law of Lewis Peoples (musician) and wants to say she loves her girl Janice Peoples and her son Benjie Jolly (how is that for openers Mrs. P.?) ...

Then there wuz sweet and kind Paula L. (pretty smile) Branch who wants her family to know she loves them mo'so when she is working to make things nicer for Letitia L., Amber D., and Tatiana S. Moore (Thanks Mrs. P.L.B.) ...

Tammie, thanks for the good food and the low-salt diet ... it's working and ME feels so much better ...

Hey Aletha (nothing bad about the Motor-city) But ME wants L.V. (June) Palmore and all of the little Palmore's to know you have a beautiful lady in your lives and she is proud of all of you. ...

Namely: LaVance, LaVale, and ten month old Demetrius. L.V., happy to know you and Aletha are both attending school. You will become a master of criminal law and she for nursing in critical-care unit. Both are working to give their family a good life. LaVance (age 7) received the Most Outstanding Award in his school class in 1983. LaVale is growing to be a fine lad at age 5 and they are following in their mom and dad's footsteps BECAUSE MOM AND DAD ARE TEACHING THEM TO GROW IN TRUE WISDOM! ...

HOW DID THIS GET IN HERE? "Rudi — get well soon. But! Leave all the good-loooking Nurses alone. Love, Faye and Dave (Hey you two, thanks for doing ME dirty duds and stuff and thangs!) ...

A Kid's Opinion

By Che' Jones

In September of 1982, a 15-month-old died from a paralyzing drug, injected by a vocational nurse in Georgetown, Texas.

The nurse was charged with murder, one year and 3 monthsk after the incident. She faces a possible life sentence if convicted.

If convicted? This lady has killed one child, a two-month span she injected life-threatening span she injected life-threatening injections to six other children, and in nearby Bexar County she is charged with injecting a month-old boy with a blood-thinning drug while she was employed at San Antonio's Medical Center Hospital.

Wait — let's separate fact from fiction here. Either these people are on her case for some mysterious reason, or she has a mental problem, so that means she needs to be in a hospital or jail.

I think that anyone who would harm a child is very sick (mentally sick) and if you think for a second ... she harms infants, too. That's even worse!

I think this lady needs to be put away! Throw away the key ... and then discuss it.

I REST MY CASE!

The play entitled "Who Done It?" was a mystery, a tale of Knights, Cavaliers, Swordsmen, Apprentice Thieves, Monsters, Mad Scientists, Super Spies, and Super Computers. One had to have a sense of association for literature to be able to follow the plot.

As an added attraction, Problem Solving Class teacher Greg Young taught the computer to sing, dance and steal anything.

Most of all, you had to be there to see the students in action. Congratulations to those hard-working teachers.
