Youth Held In Fetus Slaying

North Las Vegas Police jailed a 15-year-old boy Friday and charged him with murder in the early morning stabbing death of his girlfriend's near full-term unborn child.

The woman, Victoria Hudson, 20, suffered three deep stab wounds with a large kitchen meat knife that punctured both her lungs and the fetus' umbilical cord, police said.

The stabbing reportedly occurred shortly before 6 a.m. when the youth allegedly slipped into Hudson's bedroom in the home of her mother, Emma Nash, 2008 Lawry Ave.

Hudson was lying on her bed when she was attacked, police said.

The woman's screams aroused her family, who called police and an ambulance. Hudson was rushed to Sunrise Hospital, where her unborn baby girl was pronounced dead.

The rupture of the umbilical cord had cut the "Unemployment, economic development, crime, social assistance programs for the indigent, our youth, and the elderly are all top priorities of our mission," Fields stated.

Fields also said that the district is ready to move beyond the fragmentation of different "sub-interest groups," and is ready to progress, putting respect, productivity, and cooperation back into its presentation.

The 30-year-old Fields is an Air Force veteran, a member of the Project Review Committee for the Clark County Health System Agency, a board member of the local American Correctional Association, member of the Nevada Constables Association, member of Phillip E. Bell Lodge No. 5, co-founder of D.A.W.N., Inc.; Boy Scouts of America Post Coordinator, and member of the State Coalition of Substance Abuse.

Fields attended UNLV in 1974 as a freshman and participated in the Running Rebels basketball program.

baby's oxygen supply, which caused its death, police quoted doctors as saying.

Hudson was listed in critical but stable condition in the hospital's intensive care unit.

Police did not identify the suspect because of his age. He and Hudson are not married, they said.

NAACP TO OBSERVE FOUNDERS DAY FEB. 12

According to Dr. Bernard Hamilton, President of the local chapter of the NAACP, plans are in progress for several programs of significance to the Las Vegas community, and particularly to the black community.

As the National organization celebrates its 75th Anniversary this month, the local chapter of the NAACP will hold its Founders Day observance at 3 p.m. on February 12. The program will take place at the Vegas View Church of God in Christ, 1906 Glider Street. Dr. Hamilton will be the featured speaker.

Suspects Arrested For Beating

Two suspects were arrested by Metropolitan Police on Sunday morning after they allegedly beat and robbed a pool-playing companion at Andy's Liquor, D Street and Jackson Avenue, officials said. Victim Douglas Ebnetter shot pool with suspects Joe Thompson and Lilly Campbell for about two hours. According to police reports, Campbell and Thompson beat Ebnetter with their fists, kicked him and struck him with a bar stool, then stole $400 during the 6:30 a.m. incident. They were arrested later, police said.

Trial Underway For Man Accused of Shooting Man 9 Times

Testimony began Monday in the District Court murder trial of a 31-year-old man accused of shooting a man nine times in a bar on Bonanza Road.

If convicted of first-degree murder, Leonard Pedroso Luna, also known as Leonard Pedroso, faces life imprisonment, with or without the possibility of parole. Before the trial, prosecutor Bill Koot withdrew his intention to seek the death penalty.

Black College Ruling On Strike

OXFORD, Pa. — The 70 full-time members at the USA's oldest black college — Lincoln University — remained on strike Tuesday. They're asking for higher pay, better benefits and a greater role in decision making. The university is expected to decide today whether to accept teachers' proposal for binding arbitration. The strike, in effect since Thursday, has meant cancelled classes for the school's 1,100 students.

Luna is accused of killing Rolando Munoz, 29, who was shot about 6:45 p.m. July 25 in Gilbert's Liquor Store, 322 W. Bonanza Road.

Earlier in the day, the 12-member jury was seated in the courtroom of Judge John Mendoza.

In his opening statement to the jury, Koot said Luna walked into the liquor store and shot Munoz nine times. Eight of the shots, Koot said, penetrated the victim's body.
