WOMEN'S DAY

The annual Women's Day program will be observed at Zion Methodist Church, Sunday, Mar. 11 at 11 a.m.

Special speaker will be Juanita Thomas and the theme is "Successful Women in Church, The Home and Industry."

The Zion Methodist Women's Choir conducted by Georgia Hardeman will sing and will be accompanied at the organ by Juanita Wynn, and Clara Scott at the piano. All women will be dressed in white dresses with red corsages.

Working committee chairpersons are as follows: Women's Day Chairpersons are Marie Whitsett and Irene Childress, Finance - Ruby Amie and Arlene Bapsed, Flowers - Atha Toliver and Barbara Kirkland, Music - Georgia Hardeman, Publicity - Jackie Hoggard and Charlotte Mitchell, Awards - Arlene Smith, Patricia Watson, Lucille Bryant, and Daphne Whitson, Refreshments - Bernice Knight, Jeanette Shed, Vicki Evans.

The program promises to be a success and the public is invited.

RUTH HICKS HONORED

Ruth Hicks, a core teacher of Jo Mackey Sixth Grade Center, was awarded a certificate for Teaching Excellency by the Clark County School District Teaching Excellence Committee and the Board of Trustees. The award was presented on last Friday morning at Joe Mackey School with Trustee Virginia Brewster doing the honors.

Brewster said she felt signally honored to make the presentation for she has known Ruth from high school days in Tallulah, La. in 1956 and had found her to be a very lovely person and most deserving of the award.

Hicks is a member of Second Baptist Church pastored by Rev. Willie Davis, who also attended the honors breakfast and lauded her highly as a great church woman, humanitarian, and beautiful person.

David Sankeur, Chairman of the Jo Mackey Social Committee, presented a beautiful antique brass bell and numerous potted plants and flowers from the faculty.

The program was coordinated by principal Jean Tansey, David Sankeur, and Jeffrietta Thompson, librarian.

Hicks was certainly taken by surprise and breathlessly expressed her appreciation to all in attendance.

KUDOS TALENT SHOW

The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. KUDOS Boys Guidance Group is sponsoring a talent show on Saturday, March 17, 7 p.m. at Bishop Gorman High School; Henry Shed, Todd Shed, Greg Knight, Jerome Johnson, and Melvin Campbell of Valley High School. You may also contact the Kudos Advisors: Claudette Whitson at 451-9429 or Simmie Daniel at 456-8076.

Tickets may be purchased at the door for $2 and the proceeds will help defray expenses to the XINOS/KUDOS conference to be held in Inglewood, Ca. during the month of April.

WEDDING BELLS

Wedding bells rang for lovely Lynn Perry and Tony Gerrenger of Pasadena, Ca., who were joined in holy matrimony over the weekend at the Candlelight Wedding Chapel on the Las Vegas strip. We wish them many, many years of happiness.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

We take this opportunity to express our deepest sympathy to Dr. Darville Knowles of Sunrise Medical Center and Attorney Michael Knowles on the passing of their beloved and devoted mother, Helene Preseed Knowles, who was ill for many, many
