Other special achievements include the writing of an unarmed Defense Manual and inclusion in 1982 and 1983 Las Vegas Sentinel-Voice's listing of the 100 Most Influential Black Las Vegas. In 1982 he served as a Democratic state executive board member and presently serves as a hearing representative for the State Parole Board of Nevada.

MOSAIC OF JOHN F. KENNEDY GIFT TO LIBRARY DISTRICT

Through the generosity of John Rendazzo, a portrait in mosaic of late President John F. Kennedy has been presented to the Clark County Library District, to hang permanently in the Flamingo Library, 1401 E. Flamingo Rd.

The portrait, consisting of 11,000 pieces of imported Italian tile on wood and weighing approximately 300 pounds, was originally presented to President Kennedy by the Chamber of Commerce of Palm Springs, Calif. The portrait then hung in the east wing of the White House. After Kennedy was assassinated, the mosaic was stored at the John F. Kennedy Library and National Archives until recently returned to the artist.

— they completed the project within four days of assignment — Rendazzo searched for the right place to display the mosaic. He selected the Flamingo Library where the work is prominently displayed for all to salute the memory of a much-admired president.

THE LIBRARY IS YOUR TAX INFO CENTER

To help you prepare your 1983 tax forms, the Clark County Library District has again established tax information centers at all of its branch libraries.

As of this month, all of the basic income tax forms are available at the Flamingo Library, 1401 E. Flamingo Road, the Charleston Heights Library, 800 Brush Street, The Las Vegas Library, 1726 E. Charleston Blvd., Sunrise Library, 1000 North Nellis, and the West Las Vegas Library, 1402 "D" Street.

To further help in your tax preparations, VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) and TCE (Tax Counseling for the Elderly) sites will be offered at four branch libraries. These weekly programs, beginning in February, will be offered through the Internal Revenue Service Taxpayer Education Program to

GONG SHOW AUDITIONS TO BE HELD AT LIBRARY

Get your act together!! There's going to be a "Gong Show" on June 14 and all interested participants will be excited to know the audition dates for the West Las Vegas Library-sponsored talent program have been set for Apr. 7, 14, 21 and 28, by appointment only.

Singers, dancers, jugglers, imitators, dog trainers and harmonica players all are invited to vie for the first prize of $100 cash. Other survivors of the "gong" will also compete for a $25 gift certificate donated by J.C. Penney's, Meadows Mall, and dinner for two at the Red Lobster, for second prize. Third prize will be a $25 gift certificate from the Broadway Beauty Salon, Meadows Mall.

After you've "got your act together," call the staff at the West Las Vegas Library, 647-2117, for an audition appointment.

provide Clark County residents with information on how to complete the 1040EZ, 1040A, 1040 and Schedule A.

This taxpayer service program is staffed solely by volunteers and is primarily for those persons who earn less than $20,000 and have average tax returns. No business returns will be completed at any of the sites.
