McColl Wins Re-election

Jeff McColl scored a lopsided victory Tuesday to gain a second three-year term in office as secretary-treasurer of Culinary Local 226 as the four-union strike ended its 44th day after a federal mediator recessed negotiations.

McColl got 72.9 percent of the vote, 5,073 compared to former secretary-treasurer Ben Schmoutey, who had 678.

Robert Lanyon had 594 votes, Mel Godfrey 498 and Benny Caldaro

117 in the race for secretary-treasurer.

Incumbent president Joe Hays also retained his post, with 73.7 percent of the vote, 4,953 ballots.

Jim Collins had 649, Mary Powers 472, Carlos Ramirez 468 and Lupe Nieves 177.

Incumbent vice president Rudi Bath had 57.7 percent of the votes, with 3,350. He outdistanced Julius George with 670, Naomi Marquez with 591, Dick Porcaro with 988 and Ed Tesko with 203.

Ballots were cast from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Gold Room of the Las Vegas Convention Center, with members standing in line outside the center allowed in at 7 p.m. when the doors were locked. The last member voted at 8:05 p.m.

A total of 7,360 votes were cast, with members using 100 voting booths divided into eight alphabetical precincts. Ballot Security Systems Inc. oversaw the voting and counting.

The vote was more than the 6,800 cast in the last Culinary election in 1981.

KIDS RIDE FREE ON TRAILWAYS

Trailways Lines, Inc. the nation's bus industry leader, today announced that a child under 12 years old would ride free Monday thru Thursday when accompanied by a full-fare paying adult. According to Robert Buschner, Trailways' vice president marketing, the new offer will become effective June 1 and run thru Dec. 31, 1984.

Children under 12 could normally be required to pay half the adult fare for any Trailways ticket, so this really is a substantial savings for families," added Buschner. And the best thing about the free fare offer is that it comes just in time for summer vacations and runs through the busy holiday season ... a time when we are all looking for extra dollars."

The special "kids ride free" program is good on departures Monday thru Thursday at midnight from all Trailways Lines.
