

HELEN PITTS GIVEN FESTIVE FAREWELL IN HONOR OF HER PURSUIT FOR CONTINUED EDUCATION

A festive farewell party was given for Helen Pitts, Clark County Social Services worker, at the home of Myrtle Banks, 1913 "D" St. on May 12. The honoree leaves on May 28 in her pursuit of obtaining a Masters degree in Social Service at the University of Maryland, Baltimore, Md. Food and beverages were served in a Mexican motif. It was all planned through the combined efforts of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority sisters Myrtle Banks and Dee Wells. Helen Pitts, a long-time client of Miss Dee's Hair Internationale, plans to return to Las Vegas after her two-year study at the University. It was a festive occasion and as pictured, all enjoyed the hospitality provided. Pictured are those who attended the occasion.

(L-R) Dee Wells, Moe Pitts, John Pitts, Helen Pitts, Myrtle Banks shown at lovely home of Myrtle Banks.

(L-R) Melva Bowman of Rock Springs, Wyo. visiting Miss Dee in Las Vegas; Ida Gaines, Mora Wilson, wife of County Commissioner Woodrow Wilson. Ida Gaines and Mora Wilson are also clients of Miss Dee's.

(L-R) Eleanor Pittman, Ann Moten — regular clients at Miss Dee's.

Photos by Ed Brown

Mr. and Mrs. William Brady. Barbara Brady is Director of Clark County Social Services.

Judy Buswell, Clark County Social Services Social Worker.

Delores Matthews, daughter of Dee Wells. She serves as receptionist at Miss Dee's and is a freshman at UNLV majoring in Communications.

Tom Thomas, Clark County Social Services Social Worker.

Cynthia Pitts, sister-in-law of Helen Pitts.

(L-R) Bertha Warrick, Rosemary Hall.

Marra "The Star" Anderson, Laverne McCrady, both hair stylists at Miss Dee's.

Stephanie Rains served as beverage mixer for the affair.