

BRONZE TODAY

Issue No. 1

"The Truth Will Set You Free"

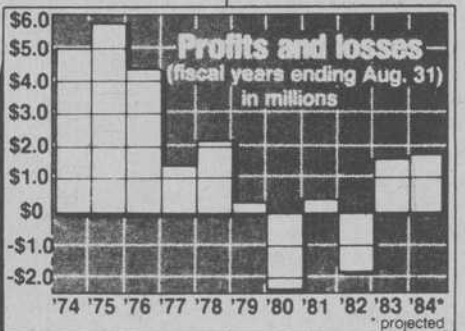

May 31, 1984

Johnson Products at a glance

FOUNDER GEORGE E. JOHNSON:
Goal "is to resume growth."

Johnson Products Co. Inc. is in the midst of an earnings turnaround as it tries to regain its position as the leading manufacturer of cosmetics for blacks. Here's a look at its sales and profits and losses since 1974:

Source: Johnson Products Co. Inc., The Value Line Investment Survey. Photo By AP, graphic By Dale Glasgow, USA TODAY

Casino Profits Down; Reno Had Big Gains

CARSON CITY—Casino profits down 43 percent: The state's hotel-casinos made $180.5 million in fiscal 1983, down from $315.9 million a year earlier, the Gaming Control Board reported. Blamed: increased expenses. Reno casinos had big gains, but profits were down in Las Vegas and losses were recorded in Lake Tahoe... Workers' compensation insurance rates will not change next fiscal year, said the state Industrial Insurance System.

All-Northern Baseball Team Selected Here

The All-Northern AAA high school baseball team, selected by coaches:

P: Ross Brennan and Rob Griffin, Reno; Kent Almond, Reed; C: Bob Ayrault, Carson; IF: Gino Mariani, Carson; Shawn Boskie, Reno; Rob Mowat, South Tahoe; Mike McCusker, Reed; Glen Aquiri, Fallon; OF: Blake Hewitt and Dana Arnett, Reno; Stacey Kruse and Woody Healey, Carson; Uderick Glenn, Reed; Utility: Keith Otte, Reno; DH: Mark Fleiner, Reno.

Most valuable players: Brennan and Hewitt. Coach of year: Bill Penala, Reno.

Make a Black Woman Happy

Here's A Once In A Lifetime Offer

Send
RARE PICTURES, CALENDAR
AND INTERESTING REVELATIONS OF BLACK HISTORY
NEVER BEFORE TOLD

Pictures of the Four Black Queens ... $3.00
Picture of Black Santa Claus ... $1.00
Picture of Black Madonna ... $1.50
In color plus 50¢ for handling
Black & White Copies ... $1.00
Black & White Book Caja ... $3.00
Adult Books (Signature Required)
VHS Tape (50 min.) ... $30.00
plus $2.00 postage, handling

Great gifts for the hospitalized,
Birthdays, Weddings, etc.

WHOLESALE WELCOME
NO CHECKS

Write to: RICHARDSON
Star Route 6584A
Pahrump, Nev. 89041

Civil Rights Suits Filed In Court

RENO — Attorney Robert Hagar has filed two more civil rights suits against Winnemucca and its police department.

Both were filed in federal court at Reno. One on behalf of Deborah Betts of San Francisco seeks $500,000 actual damages and $100,000 punitive damages resulting from an incident in January 1982. She was charged with running a red light and resisting arrest. She alleges officer Michael Veitch used unnecessary force, harassment, verbal abuse, threats and other abuse of her civil rights.

In the other suit, a prostitute who worked in Winnemucca in July 1982 claimed damages for alleged violations of

Successor sought for Reno judge

RENO — A seven-member panel is looking for candidates to replace U.S. Bankruptcy Court Judge Clive Jones of Reno who has been ordered to Las Vegas to fill a vacancy.

Federal Judge Edward Reed of Reno has commissioned a Merit Selection Panel to review applications which are due in Reno's federal court by June 15. The post pays $65,800.

Candidates must live in the Reno-Carson area and must be members of the bar of the district court for the Nevada District.

her civil rights. The suit targets rules governing the conduct of prostitutes while working in Winnemucca.

RENO BRONZE TODAY

Nevada's Only Black Owned Newspapers

The RENO BRONZE TODAY is published by the Brown Publishing Co., 1201 South Eastern Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada 89104, 702/387-6290. Ed Brown, President & Publisher; Betty Brown, Vice President & Editor.

At present, The RENO BRONZE TODAY is distributed as an insert in the LAS VEGAS SENTINEL-VOICE. In the very near future, this publication will be printed and distributed independently in the Reno-Sparks and Carson City area. Forward news articles and pictures (black and white) to the Brown Publishing Co., 1201 South Eastern Avenue, Las Vegas, Nevada 89104. Manuscripts and pictures become the property of The RENO BRONZE TODAY.

OLGA'S BEAUTY & BARBER SUPPLY, INC.

Olga's Beauty & Barber Supply, Inc. wishes to extend best wishes for Reno's own community newspaper, RENO BRONZE TODAY. We are familiar with the Las Vegas Sentinel-Voice weekly newspaper — it is truly a paper that fully serves all segments of the community.

WATCH future issues of the RENO BRONZE TODAY for our many sale values.

573 E. Prater Way
Sparks, Nevada 89431
385-0674