Skin Care Vegas Style

It's good to keep abreast of small changes in your favorite cover girl or guy's look for the current month even small change can mean the difference of being updated or out-dated. Look at the cover models hair style for starters; note its cut, shape, curly, relaxed, short, or medium length; and how does this current look relate to your current look?

Under the hair style, what's new with the frame of the face, the eyebrows which everything else in the face rest on? Are the eyebrows more natural, but well groomed, arched but softly defined, what look would go best with your personal style?

Moving to expressive eyes, where is the eye pencil and liner used? If you check closely you see the outer corners accented in blues, greens, plums and suggestions of gold and bronze, instead of the standard black and dark brown.

Lightly mascared eye lashes, again using color or a combination of black or brown and dark blues and plums over-lying pick up the color lining the outer eye. Trying some new colors just for the fun of it.

Summer means sun-kissed skin, it's a deeper healthier glow, that's an added plus for most complexions. This translates into less foundation for most of us and none for some of us. So working with a natural or near natural foundation to build on, we move on.

To blush or not to blush is the question? Summer means real natural look for daytime and lots of fun in the sun time. A mere suggestion of blush is enough for most; from the softness of pinks and plums, bronze and dusty chocolate to murky reds and dramatic gold, all bring summer skin tones out to their best, remember just a touch and blend well, so it looks soft and natural just like your beautiful sun-kissed skin.

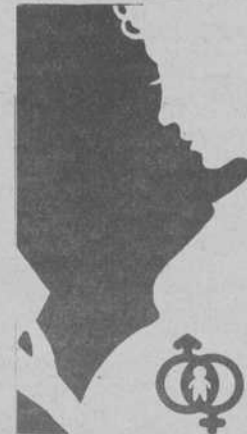

What about glosses and lipsticks? Whatever works best for you. Wear each alone or blend the two for extra protection from the sun rays and extra glamour.

Most of the new summer shades are already blended with the bronze and gold touches to basic plums, browns and sheer pinks, reds and corals. The formula for wearing both is lipstick, blot and add gloss to the very center of the bottom lip, more only if you dare.

To complete the current look don't forget the ears, be it studs, rings or cuffs or combination, the look is up to you. Whatever completes your look and makes you feel most current in today's fashionable look.

And don't forget that big beautiful Smile.

Enjoy Summer,
J.P. Talley
