Heavyweight Champ Elimination Card Set For Vegas
NEW YORK — Fight promoter Don King said Tuesday that an Aug. 31 fight card in Las Vegas will be the start of an elimination series which will eventually crown an undisputed heavyweight boxing champion.
"This is going to set the tone," King said during a news conference to promote a night of heavyweight fights scheduled against third-ranked challenger Pinklon Thomas. The WBC title was vacated when Larry Holmes resigned rather than face a mandatory title defense against Greg Page.

"I think we're going to end up with a creme de la creme champion, because all these guys are going to be fighting each other for the crown," King said.
Another bout on King's Las Vegas card sends Page, the No. 1 WBC challenger, against David Bey for the U.S. Boxing Association title. Also scheduled to fight against opponents to be named later are No. 2 contender Michael Dokes and unranked Mitchell Green.

KEN'S COMMENTS

By Ken Wilson

The torch for the Summer Olympic games has already arrived in the great city of Los Angeles. Athletes in many areas and from more than one hundred nations around the world are already in place.

Several Eastern bloc nations have refused to attend, using as excuses the usual thing that most of us have become accustomed to hearing. It is much too early to predict the country that will win the most gold medals, however, the United States should fare well in the relays, the high jump, the javelin, the boxing, the basketball, and the short-run events.

The City of Los Angeles and the surrounding areas have spared no pain or money in providing the best possible facilities, food, and entertainment for the competitors. Our hats are off to the United States Olympic Committee and the City of Los Angeles for their cooperative spirit shown in this endeavor.

The Summer Olympic games will probably not be held in the United States again during most of our lifetimes. Let's enjoy them to the fullest.

for the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas. "Most of the top 10 guys will be there, and as they look at each other today, they'll be facing each other in the ring."

The headliner on the Las Vegas card will be Tim Witherspoon's first defense of the World Boxing Council title

Moses Edges Lewis In Black Media Pool

Hurdler Edwin Moses edged fellow track star Carl Lewis by two votes in second-quarter balloting for the 1984 Black Athlete of the Year award, it was announced Thursday. The award, which includes a $25,000 cash prize, will be presented to the athlete selected in year-end balloting by black media members, who will choose from among the top five finishers in each of the quarterly votes.

THE RIVIERA added three more stars to the 'Walk of Fame' portion of the Star Plaza last week in the midst of the grand opening ceremonies for the new addition. Joining the 40-plus other celebrities and athletes currently displayed in front of the Plaza were fight promoter Don King, above, singer-actress Carol Lawrence and female impersonator Kenny Kerr.
