

JACKSON STREET AND ME . . . By Rudi Jackson

A few months went & grand opening of Heritage Hall. She gave ME pleasure of meeting a her biz'card and ME fine-spun lady at the went and hid it from ME/self(wow-rudi). How-so-ever-be-it, ME found it tucked in ME wallet where money should have been and that made ME feel good and ME phoned her and set a date for this interview:

Sandra Scott is a Las Vegas person for some 13 years after her husband, William Scott, retired from the U.S. Air Force . . . She is a Texas Sweetheart in every right (Amarillo, Texas). She is the mother of Crystale Batiste and the Proud Grand-mother of the regal child, Jamar Batiste, who left a spark of love in the lives of so many during his walk thru this earth (R.I.P.).

Sandra has a most charming background and has set goals and worked to complete many. At present she is a hard working and proud Representative of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of The United States since March, 1984. However, she has majored in the financial world since 1967.

Smiling and sipping on a cool glass of ice tea she spoke of a main goal she is working on, namely: To become a top flight Agent in her biz'ness and to earn the respect and rights to represent her clients in the community and to offer them solid help in their financial needs for days and years to come. She spoke of how many persons do not plan for the future-living, and, to set up ways to enjoy more than a mere-getting along. By way of planning a program she hopes to guide her clients into an assistance in savings for whatever the needs may be in life.

A few personal notes on Sandra are: She loves to travel and has bon voyaged to Holland during the late 60's and again in the 70's. She enjoys dancing and wholesome parties for relaxation; music and singing
