

CHURCH MOTHER OF THE WEEK

MOTHER FRANCES CARTER IS A REGULAR CHURCH MEMBER

Although she has been quite ill and is still receiving daily treatment at an area hospital, the spirits of the Church Mother for the Compassion Explosion Church, 304 E. Lake Mead, North Las Vegas, pastored by Evangelist Irene Clark, remains quite high.

Says the Church Mother, Frances Carter, "I work for the Lord. I love working for Him. So I know everything will be alright."

Vegas 26 years ago. She followed the wishes of one of her daughters and brought the family here. She is the mother of 7 children and "likes Las Vegas."

What does she like about the church? "I like everything about it. It's alright. I love working for the Lord and go to church every Sunday and also, when my health allows, share my love with all on Wednesday nights and any other time there are church activities. I love HIM — praise the Lord," said Mother Carter.

Mother Frances Carter is this week's honoree of the LAS VEGAS SENTINEL-VOICE. Each week, this paper pays tribute to the Church Mothers of West and North Las Vegas.

The honoree will receive a lovely corsage as a gift from ONE OF A KIND FLORIST, 4810 Wynn Rd.

We wish for her speedy recovery. Congratulations MOTHER FRANCES CARTER — May God bless you!!!

Exposure to AIDS can be determined by blood test

WASHINGTON — The head of the Public Health Service said yesterday a blood test will be available soon to indicate if someone was exposed to AIDS, but it won't tell if he has the disease.

Dr. Edward N. Brandt

Jr. said the test will be useful in detecting whether donated blood contains the AIDS-causing virus.

Our success depends upon how well we satisfy you.
