merce, delivered his master plans for NBCC at the recent installation ceremonies. These hopefully will be accomplished during his regime.

The first item on the agenda is a retreat which Bailey will hold to develop some goals and objectives for the future. He says, "It's up to us to be able to create the kinds of activities to develop jobs. The job is going to have to be done by us — the people who live here." He also said that he is going to ask every member of the Board to share and work. We need to broaden the base of the Black Chamber of Commerce. There are many Black businesses all over the city. We want everyone to become a part of the Chamber. All are welcome to become members of the NBCC. Minorities, non-minorities, Asians, Latin Americans. All are welcome. Bailey said, "It is ridiculous to live in a city that exists off of the gaming industry and not have a piece of the business. It is absolutely ridiculous. We are going to be looking into the revitalization of Jackson Street. Nevada Black Chamber of Commerce is going to work with the Jackson Street businessmen. You don't believe it can happen. We are working on bringing new business developments." "We want to attend the North Las Vegas City Hall meetings. We want to have a watch-dog community. We are going to request from our political representatives that they are going to work with us. We must focus on the Economic Development in providing jobs. We are going to look at the legislative level. You are going to be accountable."

watchdogs." He said he will be dealing with member- ships and finances. The goal is 100 new members for next year.

We Can't Spell SUCCESS Without U

Cliff YOUNG FOR SUPREME COURT

The Right Judgment

A 35-year legal career insures that Cliff Young does have the right judgment to serve on the Supreme Court. A Harvard graduate, he served 4 years on the Board of Governors of the State Bar, and is a member of the American Bar Association, Washoe County Bar Association, International Society of Barristers, and the Nevada Trial Lawyers Association.

The Right Man

Cliff Young knows Nevada and her people. Born in rural Nevada, Cliff Young led his class at the University of Nevada, earning the Herz Medal, its highest academic honor. Then, in World War II, Cliff Young entered service as an enlisted man, won the combat infantryman's medal and the Bronze Star — and advanced to the rank of Major at the age of 23. Coming home, Cliff Young completed his education at one of our nation's most demanding law schools, and was then twice elected to the U.S. Congress, where he served Nevada well. Upon returning to Nevada, Cliff divided his time between public service and private law practice, compiling a distinguished 14-year record in our State Senate. A hunter, sportsman, and conservationist, Cliff Young is the first and only Nevadan to serve as President of the 4 million-member National Wildlife Federation. A family man, Cliff and his wife Jane are the parents of four and have two grandchildren.

The Right Time

Never before in the history of the State Supreme Court has Nevada needed a man like Cliff Young. His ability to make sound decisions, plus his no-nonsense approach to working with fellow Justices insures that Cliff Young will be one of Nevada's outstanding members of the State High Court.

The Time is NOW!
