Nevada Legislature

SIXTY-THIRD SESSION

Dear Voters:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for your support in the Primary election, and I'm asking for your continued support in the General election November 6, 1984.

I would again like to emphasize the fact that it was my vote which defeated the increase in your property tax. I also fought AB 531, which was a bill that would have allowed the City to take residential real estate for frivolous and arbitrary reasons.

In the next legislative session I will continue to be a strong voice for your family and our community.

Sincerely,

Gene Collins

School Students Participating In Mock Election

A culminating activity for elementary, junior and senior high school students participating in a National Mock Election will be the airing of a live television broadcast of the local results on Channel 10, Thursday, Nov. 1 at 2 p.m.

The program will feature student commentators and analysts. Clark County results will later be fed to the National Mock Election headquarters in New York City.

Mock Election Coordinators at each school participating in the survey will call in their school's results between 10 a.m. and noon on the day of the broadcast. The results will be readied for airing during the live program broadcast scheduled for 2 p.m.

Clark High School Social Studies teacher Phyllis Darling is the Mock Election coordinator.

ALVERSA BEALS NAMED CHURCH MOTHER OF THE WEEK

If there is ever one person who could be classified as a real hard-working, dedicated mother, the name that focuses is that of Alversa Beals, Teller-Clerk at the Sarah Allen Community Development Credit Union. She is on the job and eager for assignments every day of the week.

But that's not all — she is the mother of 11 children (9 girls and 2 boys) — all grown — and has 30 grandchildren.

But let's not stop there. Alversa Beals is the church mother of the Evergreen Baptist Church, 1113 North "H" Street, where Rev. Nathaniel Whitney is the pastor.

A native of Sondheim, La., Alversa Beals came to Las Vegas during 1955 to make a better way of life. She joined her father and brother here at that time. For a number of years she served on the usher Board for various local churches and became the newly appointed Church Mother for the Evergreen Baptist Church during the month of September 1984.

She loves church work and is very reliable and dependable.

Each week the Las Vegas SENTINEL-VOICE salutes the CHURCH MOTHER OF THE WEEK. The honoree receives a beautiful corsage donated by the One Of A Kind Florist, 4810 Wynn
